2007 SMU FOOTBALL

DeMyron Martin - RB
A 2005 Freshman All-America selection after leading the team with 854 yards rushing. The 854-yard total was third-best in school history for a freshman running back.

Justin Willis - QB
Named the Conference USA Freshman of the Year in 2006 and was named to the Freshman All-America team. Willis re-wrote SMU's single-season passing record books, setting a new mark with 26 touchdown passes on the year.

Emmanuel Sanders - WR
Named to the Freshman All-America Team as both a wide receiver and kick returner in 2006. Sanders caught an SMU freshman-record nine touchdowns on the year.

PROGRAM

SMU Football is truly a "Program On The Rise." SMU has upped its win total in three straight seasons and, in 2006, was eligible for its first bowl berth since 1984.

The 2006 season saw the Mustangs post their highest win total in a decade while SMU student-athletes filled a Conference USA-high six spots on the All-Freshman team. SMU also had 20 players earn post-season Conference honors and had players nominated for an amazing six national awards.

The past two seasons have seen SMU take it to a whole new level. SMU has scored its first win over ranked team since 1986 and posted its longest win streak since 1999 in the last 24 months. In addition, SMU has had four players named Freshmen All-Americans and one tabbed C-USA Freshman of the Year.

It's time to Pony Up!

SMU received the American Football Coaches Association's 2006 Academic Achievement Award. The school recorded a 100 percent graduation rate when all members of its freshman class of 2000-2001 earned a degree. Although it topped the list for the first time, SMU has been honored in the honorable mention category 11 times through the years (1987, 1994, 1995, 1996, 1997, 1998, 2000, 2001 2002, 2003, 2005).

Jessie Henderson - KR
Named to the Freshman All-America Team in 2005 as a kick returner after finishing 13th in the NCAA with a 28.17 ypr average during the season.

"No Conference USA team has more good young talent... Justin Willis is one of the nation's brightest young quarterbacks. (He) is the type of quarterback who'll be good enough to win games by himself. Along with backs DeMyron Martin and Cedrick Dorsey, the backfield should be the best in the league."

- SCOUT.COM

"This is the year. SMU has been building under head coach Phil Bennett... Now everything is expected to all come together in what's expected to be the team's best year since 1984."

- CFN.COM

"Phil Bennett's sixth Mustang team will be a contender for the West Division championship. SMU has a talented quarterback in Justin Willis (and) a veteran offensive line protecting him ... This could be the year ..."

- IVAN MAISEL

ON THE RISE

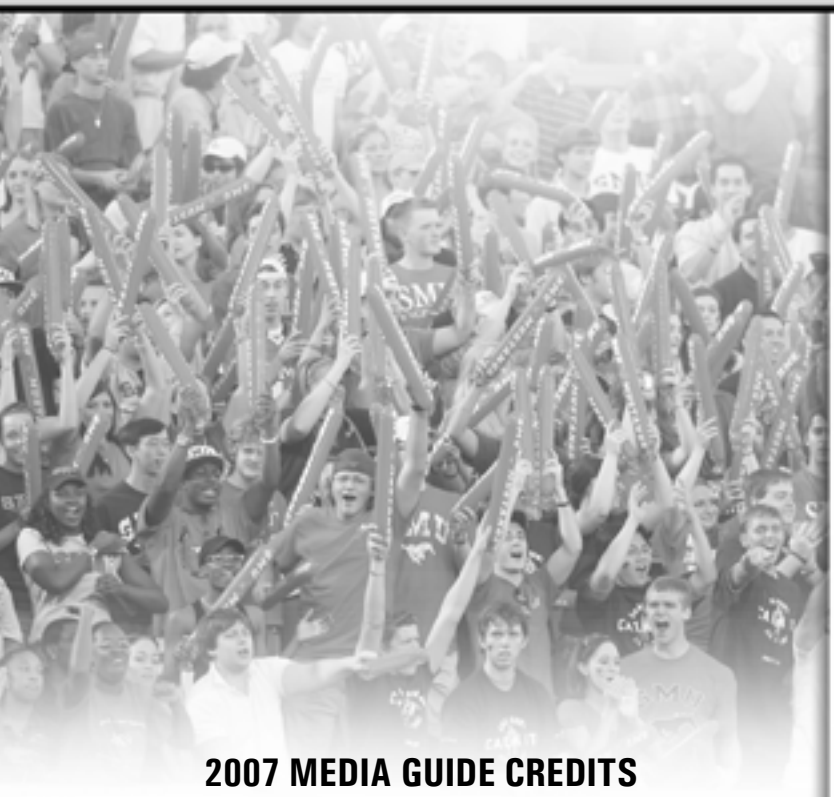

INCREASED WIN TOTALS

Phil Bennett - Head Coach
Under the direction of Head Coach Phil Bennett, the Mustangs have increased their win totals each of the past three seasons and were bowl eligible in 2006.

SMU ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT

Southern Methodist University strives for excellence in teaching, research and service. Within this mission, SMU's intercollegiate athletics program is an integral part of the institution and its educational programs. SMU is committed to maintaining an intercollegiate athletics program that reflects the attitudes and values underlying the University's overall mission: integrity, academic excellence, leadership, equity, diversity and success. An intercollegiate athletics program that reflects these values will contribute to the overall quality of the campus experience by fostering a sense of community and promoting institutional commitment on the part of student, faculty, staff and alumni.

SMU is committed to maintaining a successfully competitive intercollegiate athletics program that acts in concert with academic objectives and enriches the life of the institution. Accordingly, the intercollegiate athletics program should be conducted with respect, fairness, civility, honesty and responsibility. The student-athlete's activities are an integral part of the larger educational experience, enhancing his or her holistic development. The University will admit no student-athlete who does not demonstrate a reasonable likelihood of successfully completing a baccalaureate degree at SMU. To ensure that SMU's student-athletes have a reasonable opportunity to complete their baccalaureate degrees, the University will endeavor to provide the necessary and appropriate resources for academic support.

SMU will not discriminate in any employment practice, education program, or educational activity on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, disability, or veteran status. The Director of Affirmative Action has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the nondiscrimination policies and may be contacted at SMU, Dallas TX 75275, 214-768-3601.

In Memory

LAMAR HUNT
(1932-2006)

Nationally revered sports entrepreneur Lamar Hunt, a longtime supporter of SMU and member of its Board of Trustees, graduated from SMU in 1956. While at SMU, he was a three-year reserve end on the football team and played third base on the freshman baseball team. In 1953, Mr. Hunt founded the American Football League and the Dallas Texans, which he moved to Kansas City in 1963 and renamed the Chiefs. The NFL later merged with Hunt's successful AFL, giving birth to the modern league. In 1972, he became the first AFL figure inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, and the AFC championship trophy is named after him.

HARRY SHUFORD
(1915-2007)

Harry Shuford was a two-time All-American and tri-captain of SMU's 1935 National Championship team. Shuford was an All-America fullback in 1934 and 1935, but later became known as the boyhood idol of Doak Walker. Shuford befriended the young Walker, who grew up not far from the school. Walker was said to have chosen the number 37 when he arrived at SMU because that was Shuford's number. Shuford was drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles but attended law school at SMU, where he graduated first in his class. He went on to a prominent career in law and banking.

DR. HAROLD JESKEY
(1912-2006)

Dr. Harold Jeskey served as Faculty Athletic Representative at SMU from 1966-75. The longtime Chairman of the SMU Chemistry Department taught organic chemistry at SMU from 1945-79 and served as the chair of the Chemistry Department from 1962-74. His former students number more than 800 physicians, 200 dentists, 75 Ph.D.s and 25 teachers at leading universities. A passionate fan of SMU athletics, "Doc" was a member of the Mustang Club and volunteered in the SMU Media Relations Department for many years after his retirement.

THIS IS SMU

A private university of 11,000 students near the center of Dallas, SMU offers strong undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs through seven schools - in the humanities and sciences; business; the performing, visual, and communication arts; engineering; education and human development; law; and theology.

Students come from all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and nearly 90 foreign countries, and represent diverse economic, ethnic, and religious backgrounds.

SMU itself is a gateway to the global community, offering more than 20 study-abroad programs as well as a unique campus in Northern New Mexico on the site of a historic fort and 13th-century Indian pueblo.

Founded in 1911 by what is now The United Methodist Church, SMU opened in 1915 with support from Dallas leaders. The University is nonsectarian in its teaching and committed to freedom of inquiry.

■ The University's 10 libraries house the largest private collection of research materials in the Southwest.

■ The internationally acclaimed Meadows Museum houses one of the finest collections of Spanish art outside of Spain.

■ As part of SMU's focus on leadership, the Tate Distinguished Lecture Series and Hart Global Leaders Forum bring national and world leaders to campus for lectures and interaction with students.

■ SMU is one of the few universities to have a voting student member of its Board of Trustees. More than 200 campus organizations provide other opportunities for involvement.

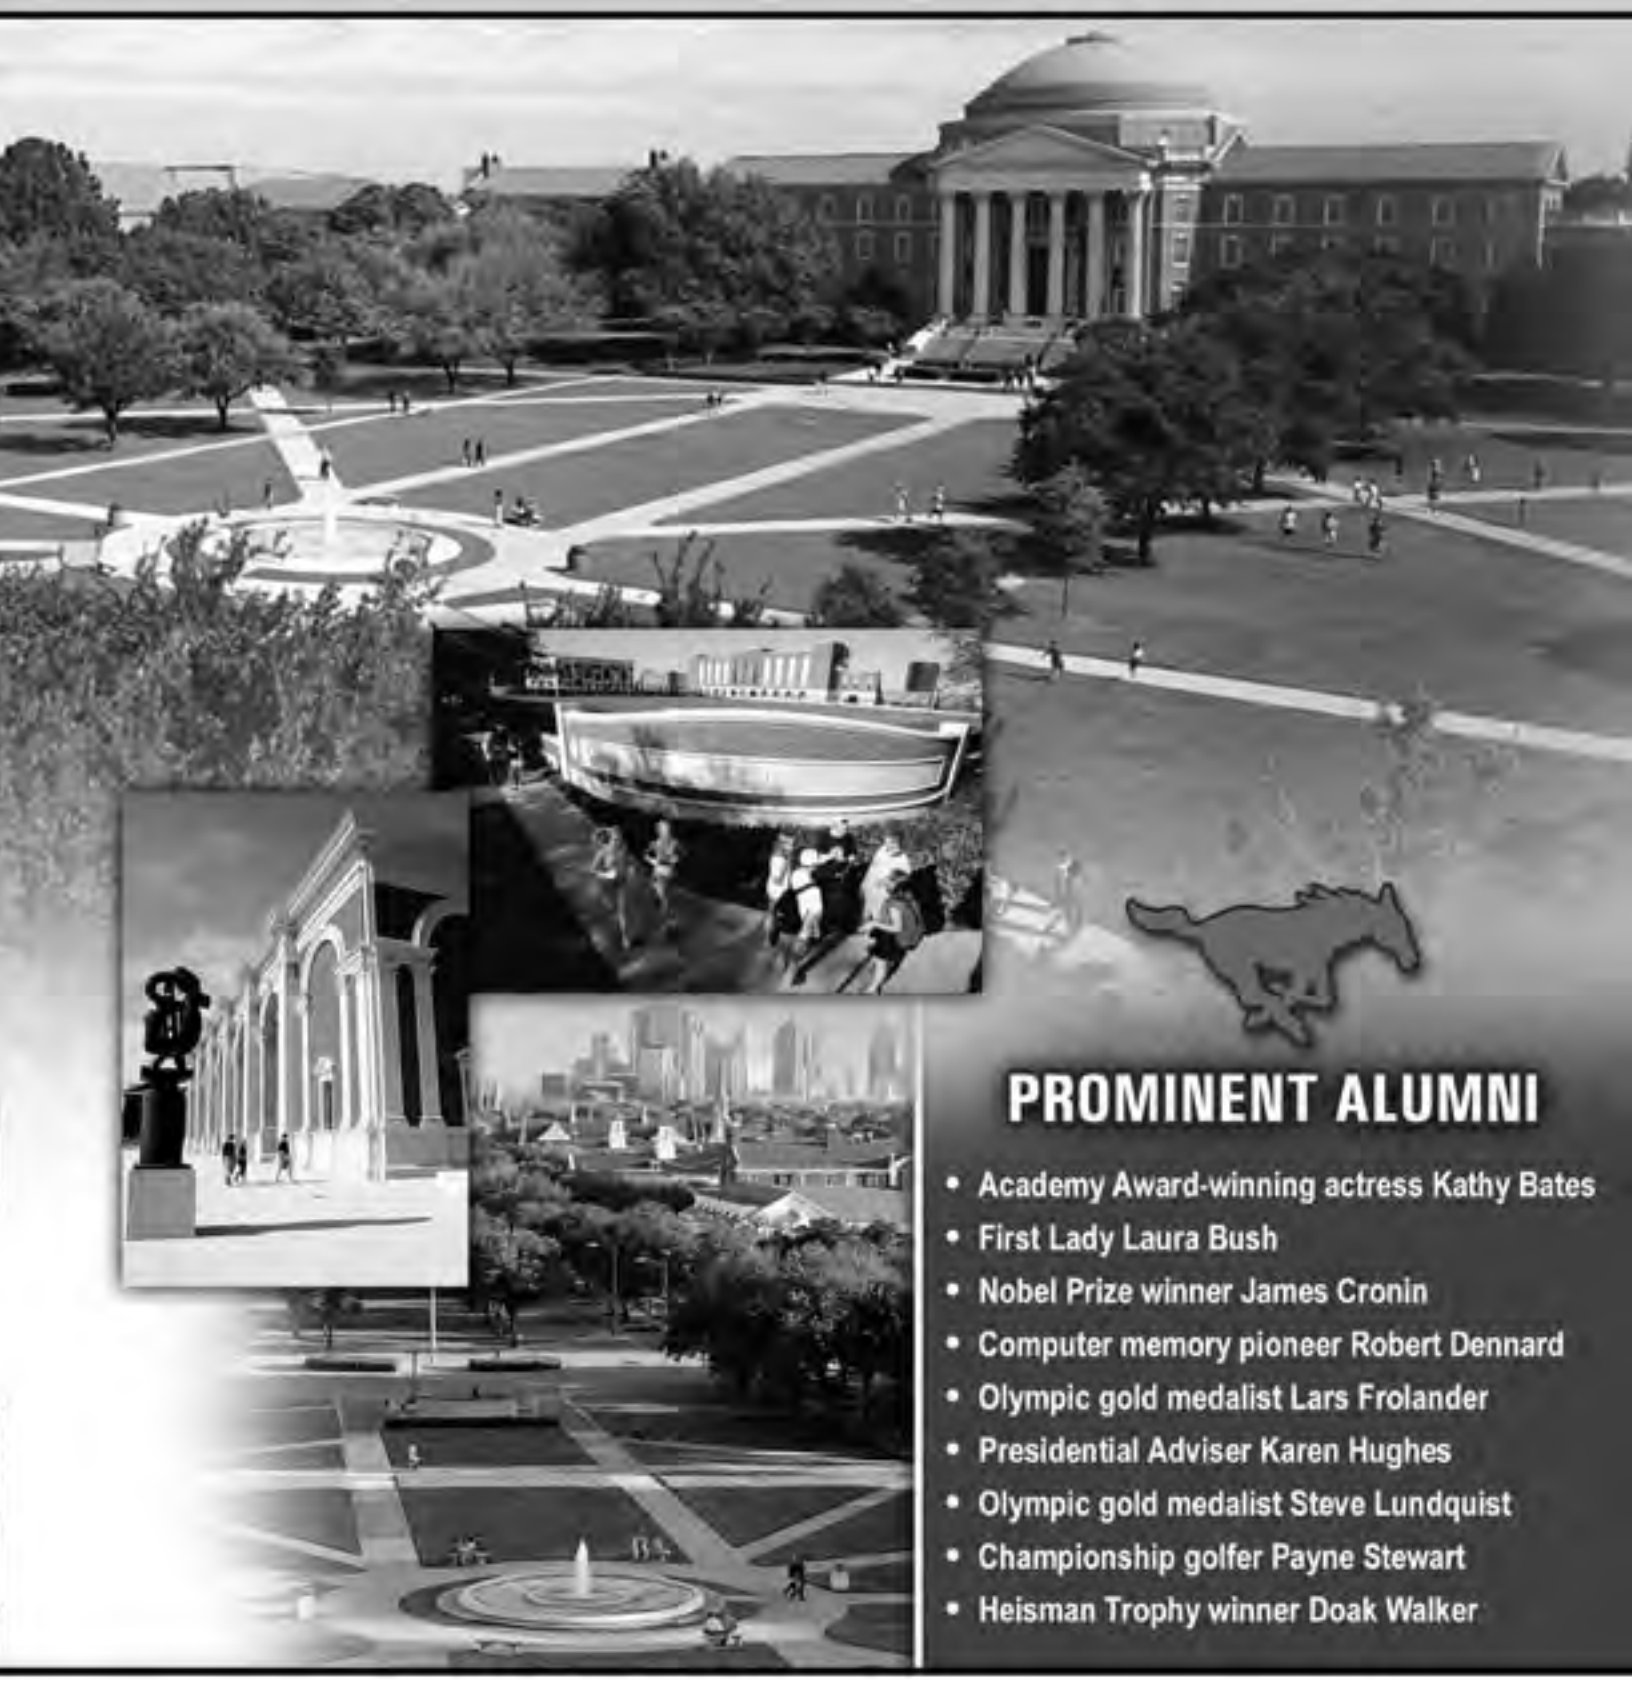

■ SMU consistently ranks in the top one-third of national universities in the guide America's Best Colleges, published by U.S. News & World Report.

■ Cox School of Business is recognized as a leader in business education by such publications as BusinessWeek, Forbes, The Economist, Financial Times, The Wall Street Journal and U.S. News & World Report.

■ The SMU Dedman School of Law is ranked 43rd in the nation by U.S. News & World Report.

MUSTANG FOOTBALL
GAMEDAY AT SMU

GAMEDAY AT SMU

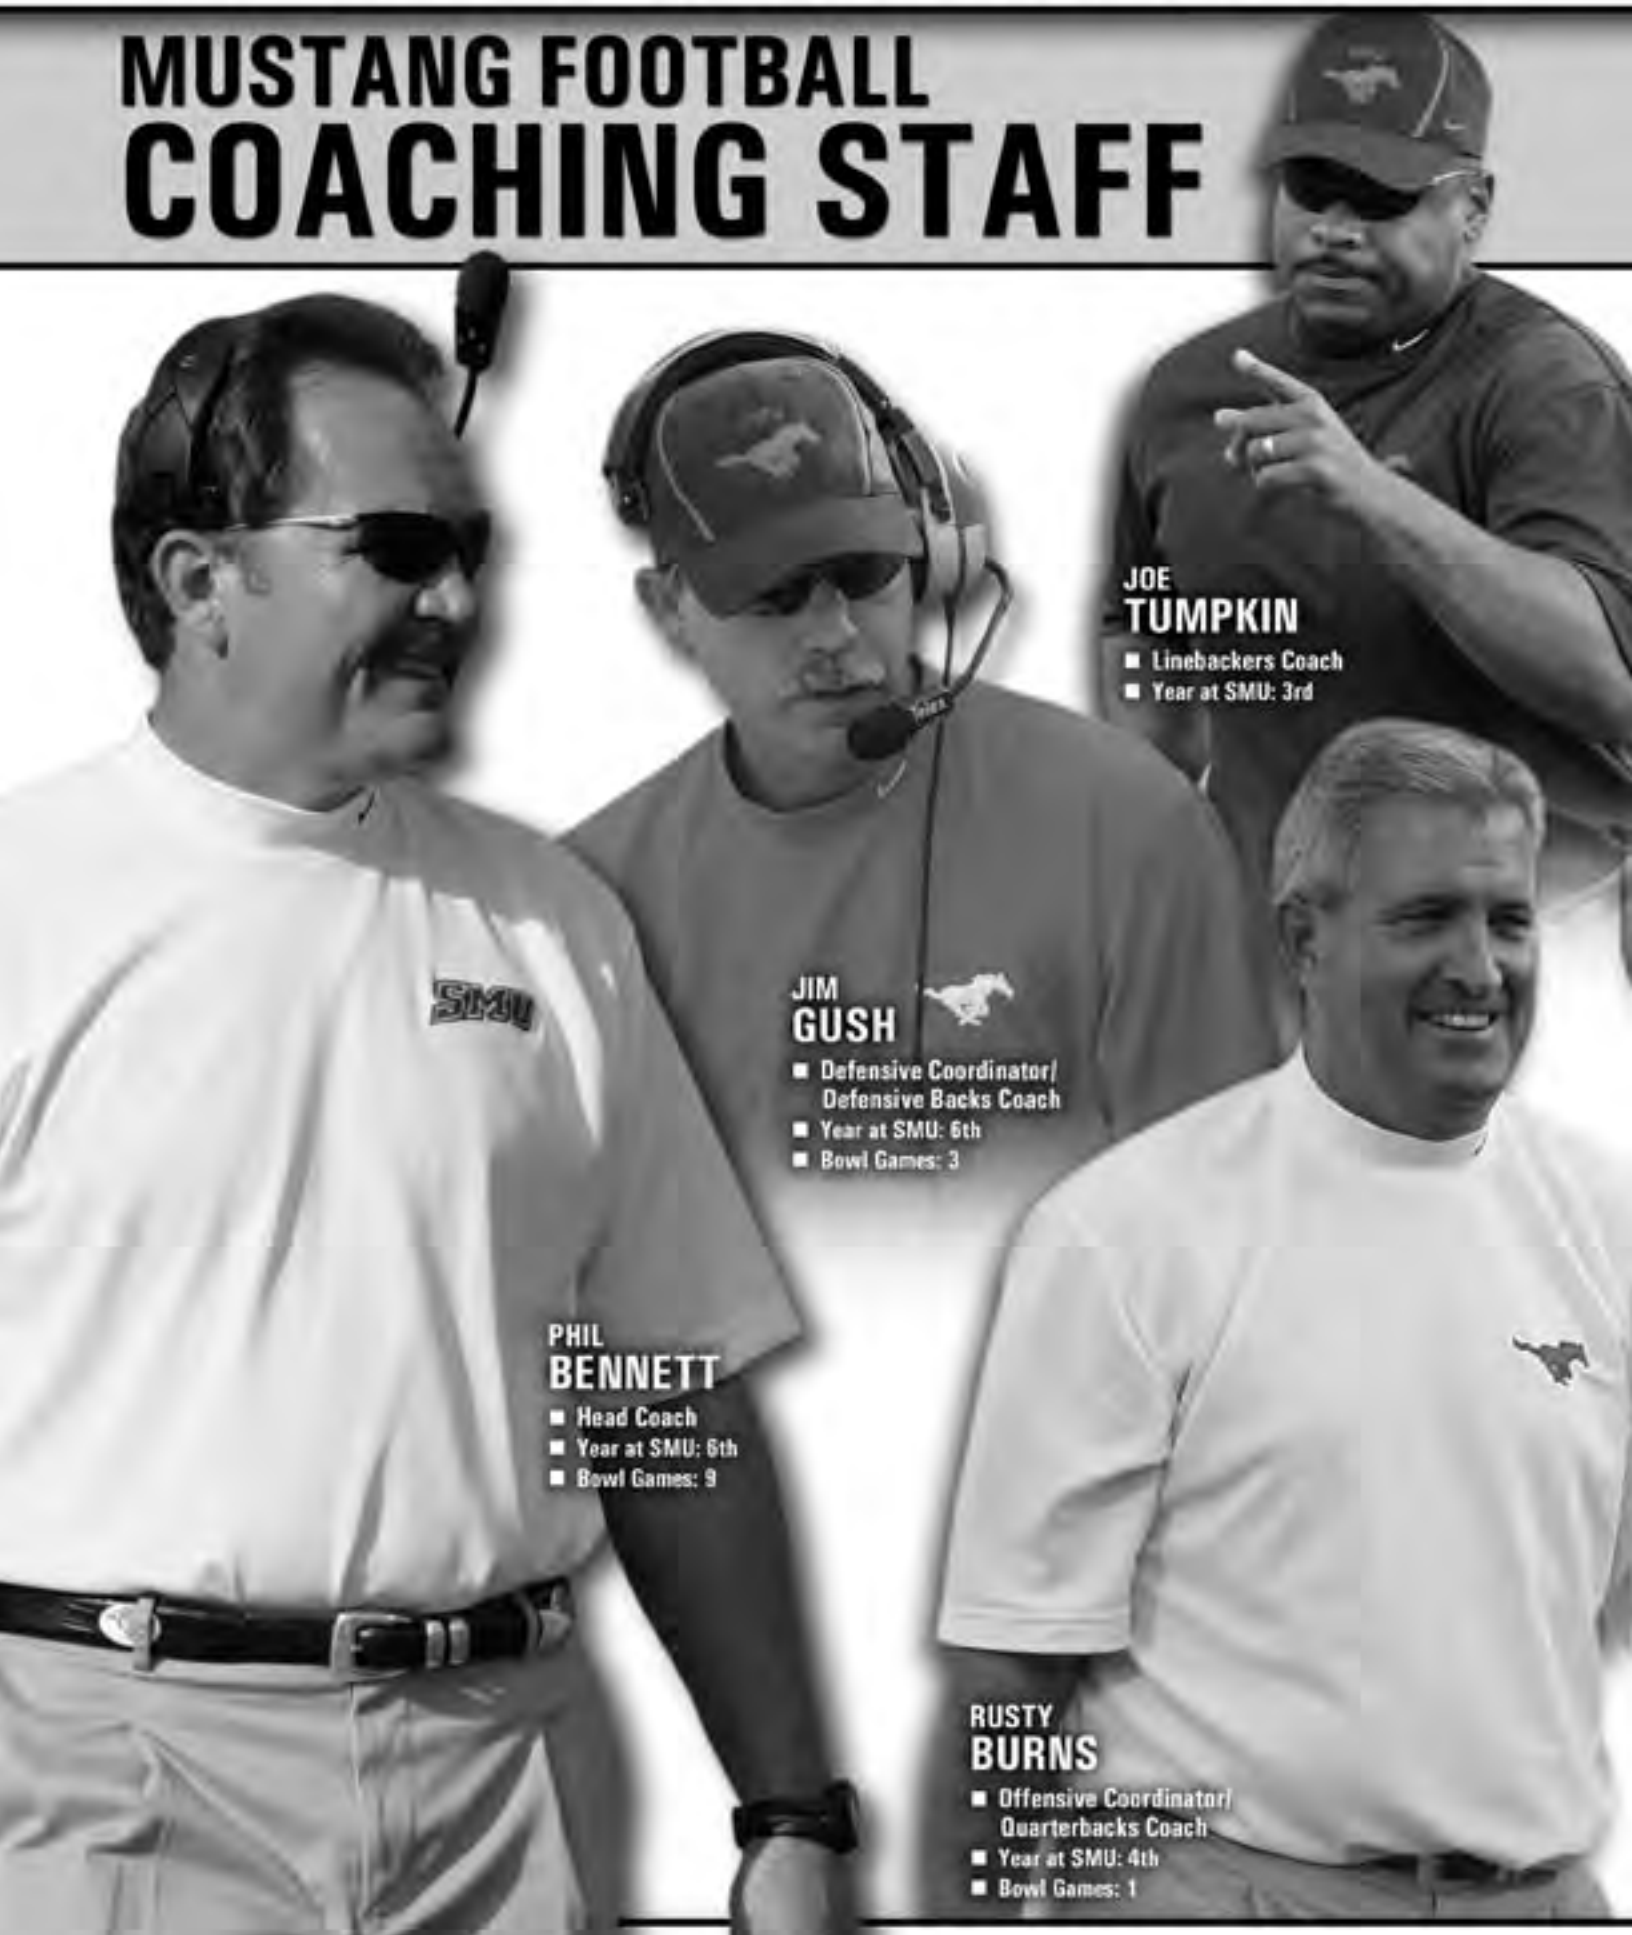

From pregame "Boulevarding" to the postgame celebration of an SMU win; from the opening kickoff to the last tick of the clock, nothing compares to the pageantry and excitement of Mustang Football on the Hilltop. On a warm Saturday night in September or crisp day in November, fall Saturdays in Dallas mean only one thing - SMU Football in Gerald J. Ford Stadium.

Kickoff may be in the afternoon or evening but gameday on campus is an all-day affair on The Boulevard. Bishop Boulevard, which runs through the heart of the beautiful SMU campus, turns into a hub of activity for alumni, students, fans and friends of the school. Groups can bring a picnic, fire up a grill for a barbecue or visit food vendors that are stationed along The Boulevard. Local and regional bands play live music, and there are activities for children as well.

As tailgating festivities wind down, fans join in the Mustang Band's Grand March to Ford Stadium. Forty-five minutes before kickoff, the band marches from Dallas Hall down Bishop Boulevard, turns left on Schlegel Street and heads into Ford Stadium.

SMU home games have an all-day collegiate atmosphere as fans rekindle old relationships and establish new ones. By combining a great tradition with a new stadium and The Boulevard, SMU Football has established itself as THE way to spend a Saturday in Dallas.

THE HOME OF MUSTANG FOOTBALL
GERALD J. FORD STADIUM

GERALD J. FORD STADIUM

In the history of the SMU Football program, June 13, 1997 and September 2, 2000, may stand out as the most significant days since the program's inception in 1915.

The first date is when University officials announced that significant funds had been raised to begin construction on the brand new Gerald J. Ford Stadium.

The second is the date that Mustang football returned to campus with the inaugural game in the stadium against Kansas. The state-of-the-art facility would not have been possible without the generous donations of Gerald J. Ford, Lamar and Norma Hunt, Ray L. and Nancy Ann Hunt, and Sherrill and Jo Ann Pettus, all of whom are SMU alumni.

Gerald J. Ford Stadium, finished in August of 2000 on the former Ownby Stadium grounds, has a horseshoe configuration with an open south end zone adjacent to Mockingbird Lane. The architecture is consistent with the Collegiate-Georgian style of the entire SMU campus and features traditional, yet state-of-the-art design concepts.

The stadium has a seating capacity of 32,000 with the possibility for future expansion to 45,000. The 32,000-seat configuration includes nearly 600 preferred club level seats and 240 seats in 24 spacious luxury suites housed in a custom, three-level press box. In addition to housing preferred club and suite seating, the air-conditioned press box provides excellent sightlines and comfortably accommodates more than 125 working print, radio and television media. The playing surface is 25 feet below ground level, with half of the stadium's seats sunk below grade, ensuring a smooth transition into the surrounding neighborhood and the remainder of the SMU campus.

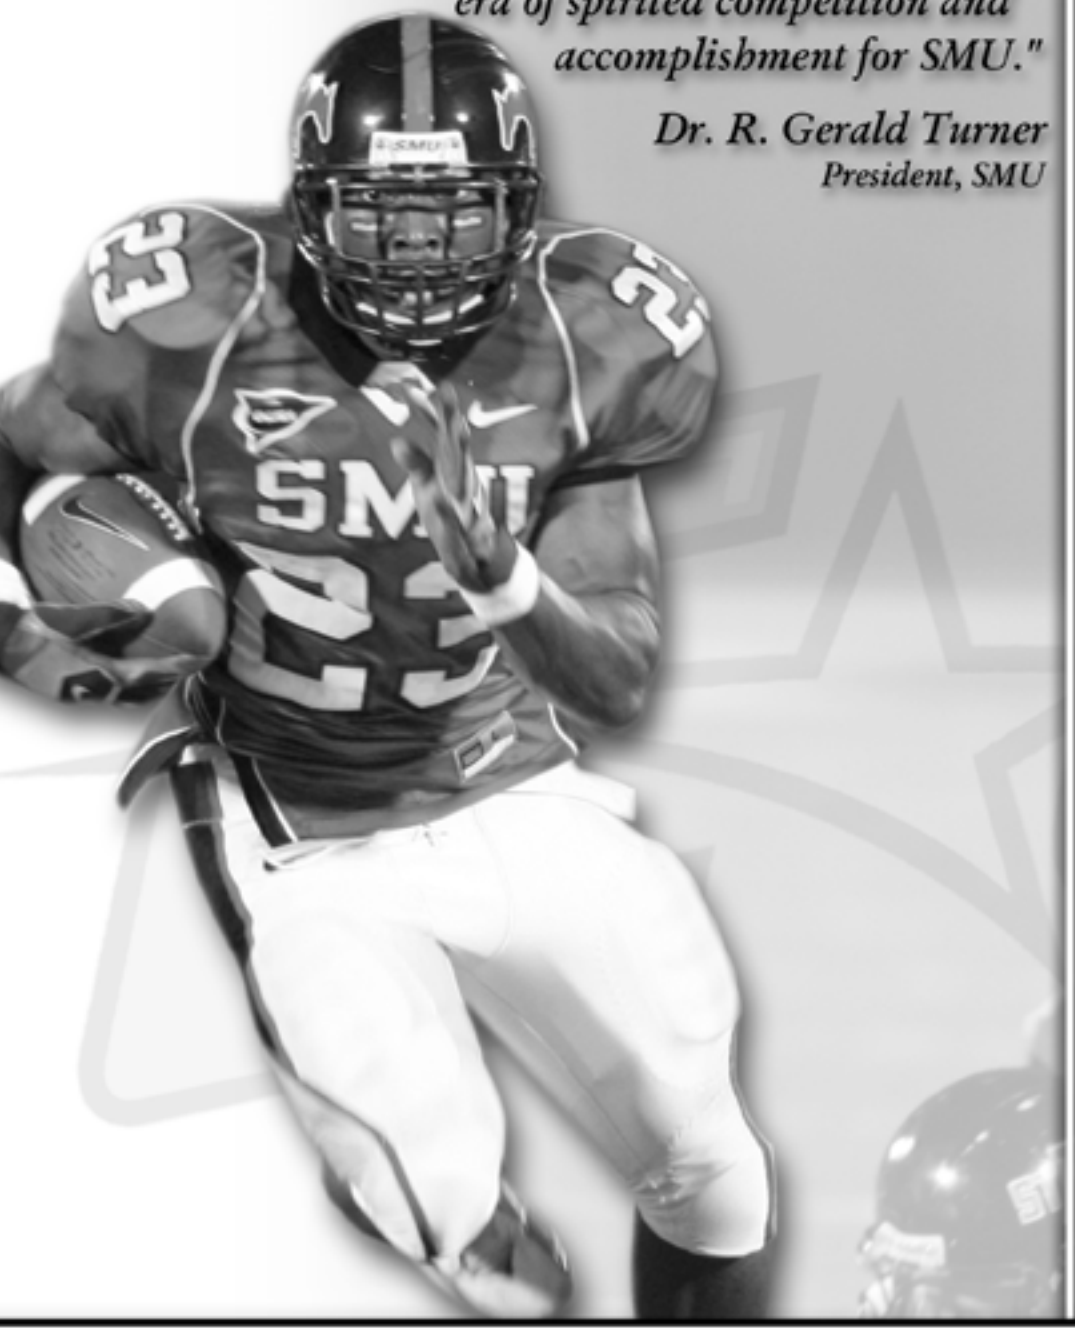

Ford Stadium was designed by the sports and entertainment design division of Ellerbe Becket, Inc., an architectural firm based in Kansas City, Mo.

C-USA TV EXPOSURE

C-USA enjoys significant television exposure through its partnerships with ESPN Inc. and College Sports Television Networks (CSTV). The league entered into long-term agreements with both ESPN and CSTV, which, combined, provides C-USA with significant national and regional exposure for football, men's and women's basketball, and all other conference sports. Additionally, the CSTV agreement includes video-on-demand, Internet, broadband, national over-the-air and satellite radio, and wireless distribution as well as corporate marketing rights, and website production through CSTV Online, a subsidiary of CSTV. The agreement with ESPN extends the conference's current regular season football package to include the broadcast of the conference's Football Championship Game. It also encompasses distribution of men's basketball and women's basketball on ESPN/ESPN2 and both tournament championship games.

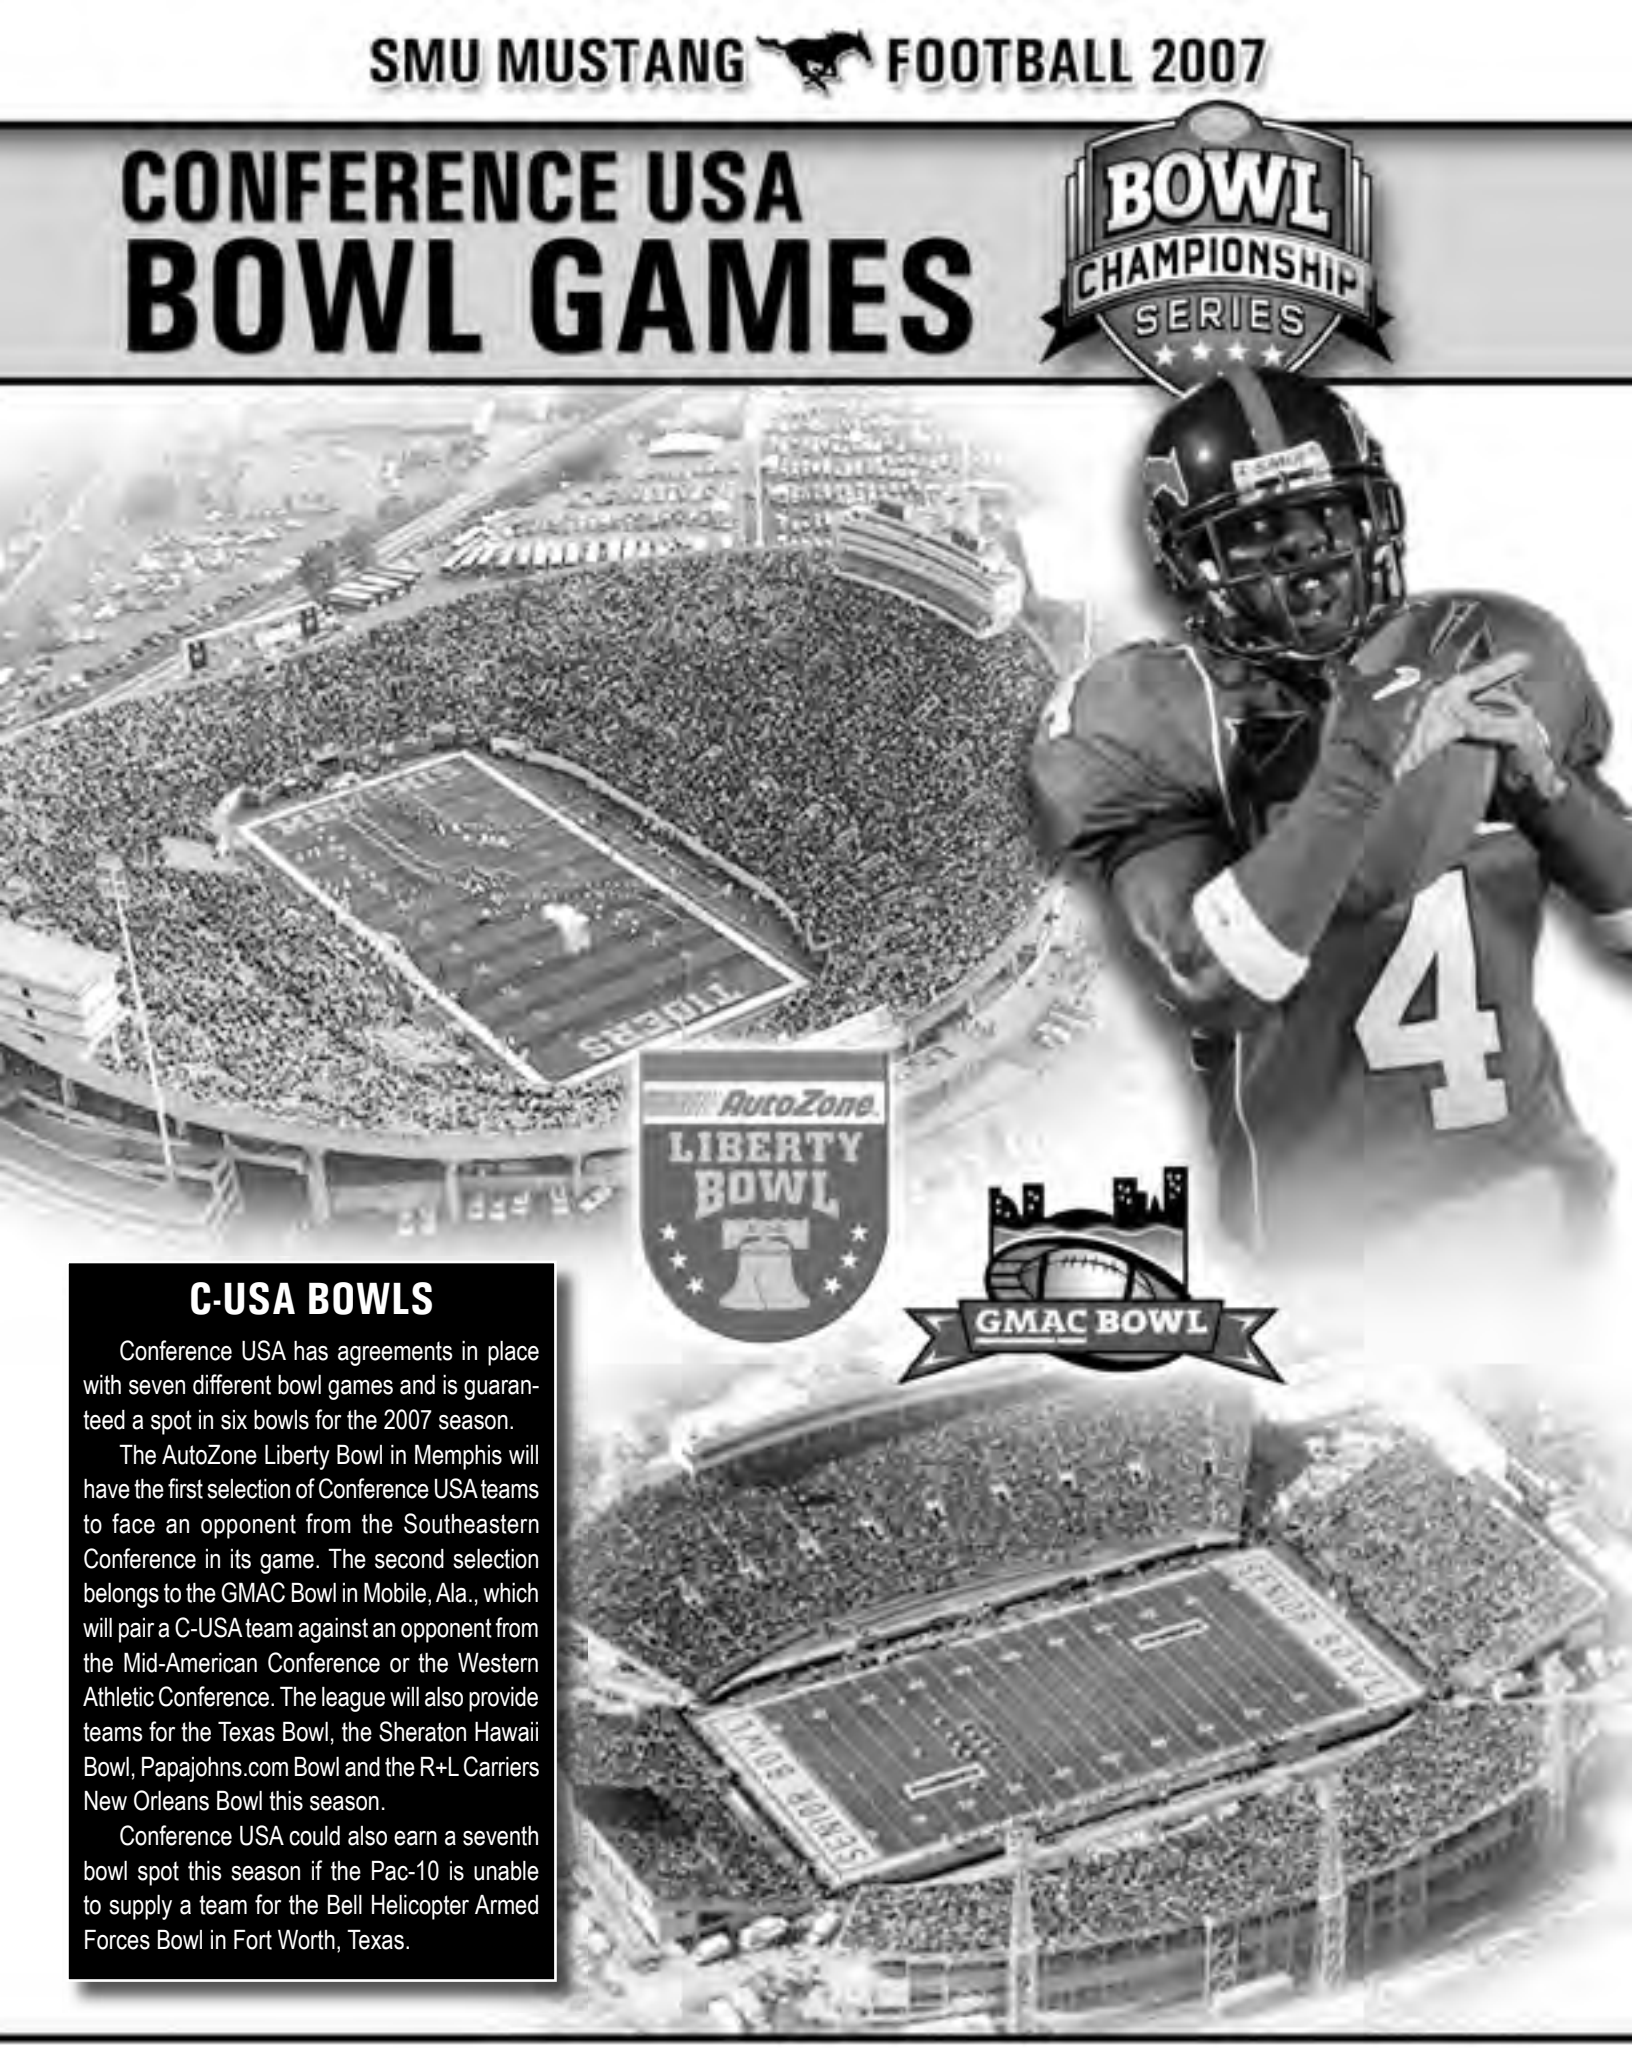

Excellence every day. For Conference USA, dedication to excellence is a common thread in athletics, academics and in the community, and the guiding initiative for the league's promising future. Conference USA features 12 nationally prominent, tradition-rich members in East Carolina, Houston, Marshall, Memphis, Rice, SMU, Southern Miss, Tulane, Tulsa, UAB, UCF and UTEP. This combination enhances men's and women's programs that are steeped in athletic success and academic prowess. Together, we are dedicated to excellence, integrity and leadership in athletics, academics and in our communities.

All C-USA institutions sponsor Division I-A football, along with several other men's and women's athletic programs, many of which compete regularly for NCAA Championships. C-USA sponsors competition in 19 sports - nine for men (baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, soccer, tennis and indoor and outdoor track and field) and 10 for women (basketball, cross country, golf, softball, soccer, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field and volleyball).

The league sponsors numerous academic awards, including the Commissioner's Honor Roll and the Commissioner's Academic Medal, indicative of outstanding achievement in the classroom. C-USA annually awards six postgraduate scholarships, along with the Sport Academic Award, Scholar Athletes of the Year and the Institutional Academic Excellence Award.

CONFERENCE USA BOWL GAMES

C-USA BOWLS

Conference USA has agreements in place with seven different bowl games and is guaranteed a spot in six bowls for the 2007 season.

The AutoZone Liberty Bowl in Memphis will have the first selection of Conference USA teams to face an opponent from the Southeastern Conference in its game. The second selection belongs to the GMAC Bowl in Mobile, Ala., which will pair a C-USA team against an opponent from the Mid-American Conference or the Western Athletic Conference. The league will also provide teams for the Texas Bowl, the Sheraton Hawaii Bowl, Papajohns.com Bowl and the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl this season.

Conference USA could also earn a seventh bowl spot this season if the Pac-10 is unable to supply a team for the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl in Fort Worth, Texas.

MUSTANG FOOTBALL OFFENSIVE GREATS

Eric Dickerson (left), Lance McIlhenny (above) and Craig James (right) formed one of the most lethal backfields in college football history in the early 1980s. Nicknamed "The Pony Express," the trio led SMU to an 11-0-1 record in 1982, a Cotton Bowl victory and a National Championship.

Jonas Rutledge ended his career on the Hilltop in 2003 as SMU's all-time kickoff return yardage leader with 2,154 yards.

Don Meredith was a two-time All-America selection for SMU and went on to enjoy a successful NFL career with the Dallas Cowboys, and later as an announcer for ABC-TV's "Monday Night Football"

Keylon Kincade is one of only four SMU running backs in school history to record multiple 1,000-yard seasons.

Chuck Hixson ended his SMU career in 1970 as the Mustangs' all-time career record holder for passing yards, completions and TD passes.

Kyle Rote was an All-America running back for SMU in 1950 and went on to be inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 1964.
Doak Walker won the 1948 Heisman Trophy in his junior year at SMU. Walker went on to be named to the College Football and NFL Halls of Fame. The nation's top collegiate running back each year is awarded a trophy named after SMU's only Heisman winner.
Reggie Dupard was a 1985 All-American for the Ponies and rushed for 1,000 yards three consecutive seasons.
With 235 career catches, Jason Wolf holds both the SMU and Southwest Conference records.
Jerry LeVias accepted SMU's offer to become the first African-American football player to earn a scholarship in the Southwest Conference in the 1960s. LeVias went on to earn All-America honors in 1968 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2003.

MUSTANG FOOTBALL DEFENSIVE GREATS

Bill Forester was a two-time All-SWC pick and went on to enjoy an 11-year career with the Green Bay Packers.

The leading tackler in school history with 649 stops, Putt Choate was a two-time All-SWC choice. He played three years (1983-85) in the USFL and one year with the Green Bay Packers in 1987.

The all-time sack leader in Mustang history, Luke Johnson was a two-time All-WAC selection.

One of the fastest players in school history, Rod Jones was a first-round draft pick in the 1986 NFL Draft. A track standout as well, Jones was a member of SMU's 1986 national championship track squad before spending nine seasons in the NFL.

Russell Carter earned All-America honors in 1983 and is SMU's career interception leader with 18 picks. Carter spent six seasons with the Jets and Raiders in the NFL (1984-89).

Gary Moten won All-SWC honors in 1981 and 1982 and finished his career second on the all-time tackles chart with 455 career stops. Moten played professionally in the CFL and NFL for five years.

One of the most decorated student-athletes in school history, Michael Carter won a silver medal in the shot put at the 1984 Summer Olympics. An All-SWC pick in 1983, Carter went on to become a three-time Pro Bowl selection in the NFL.

Jerry Ball was a three-time All-SWC pick at nose tackle from 1984-86. A three-time Pro Bowl selection in the NFL, Ball played 12 years in the league.

Louie Kelcher earned All-America honors and was named SWC Defensive Player of the Year in 1974. Kelcher enjoyed a standout NFL career that spanned 10 seasons.

Chris Bordano was the 1997 WAC Mountain Division Defensive Player of the Year. A three-time all-conference pick, Bordano ranks fifth among SMU's career tacklers with 420.

A three-time All-SWC performer (1964-66), John LaGrone was selected to the All-America and Academic All-America teams in 1966.

SPORTS MEDICINE

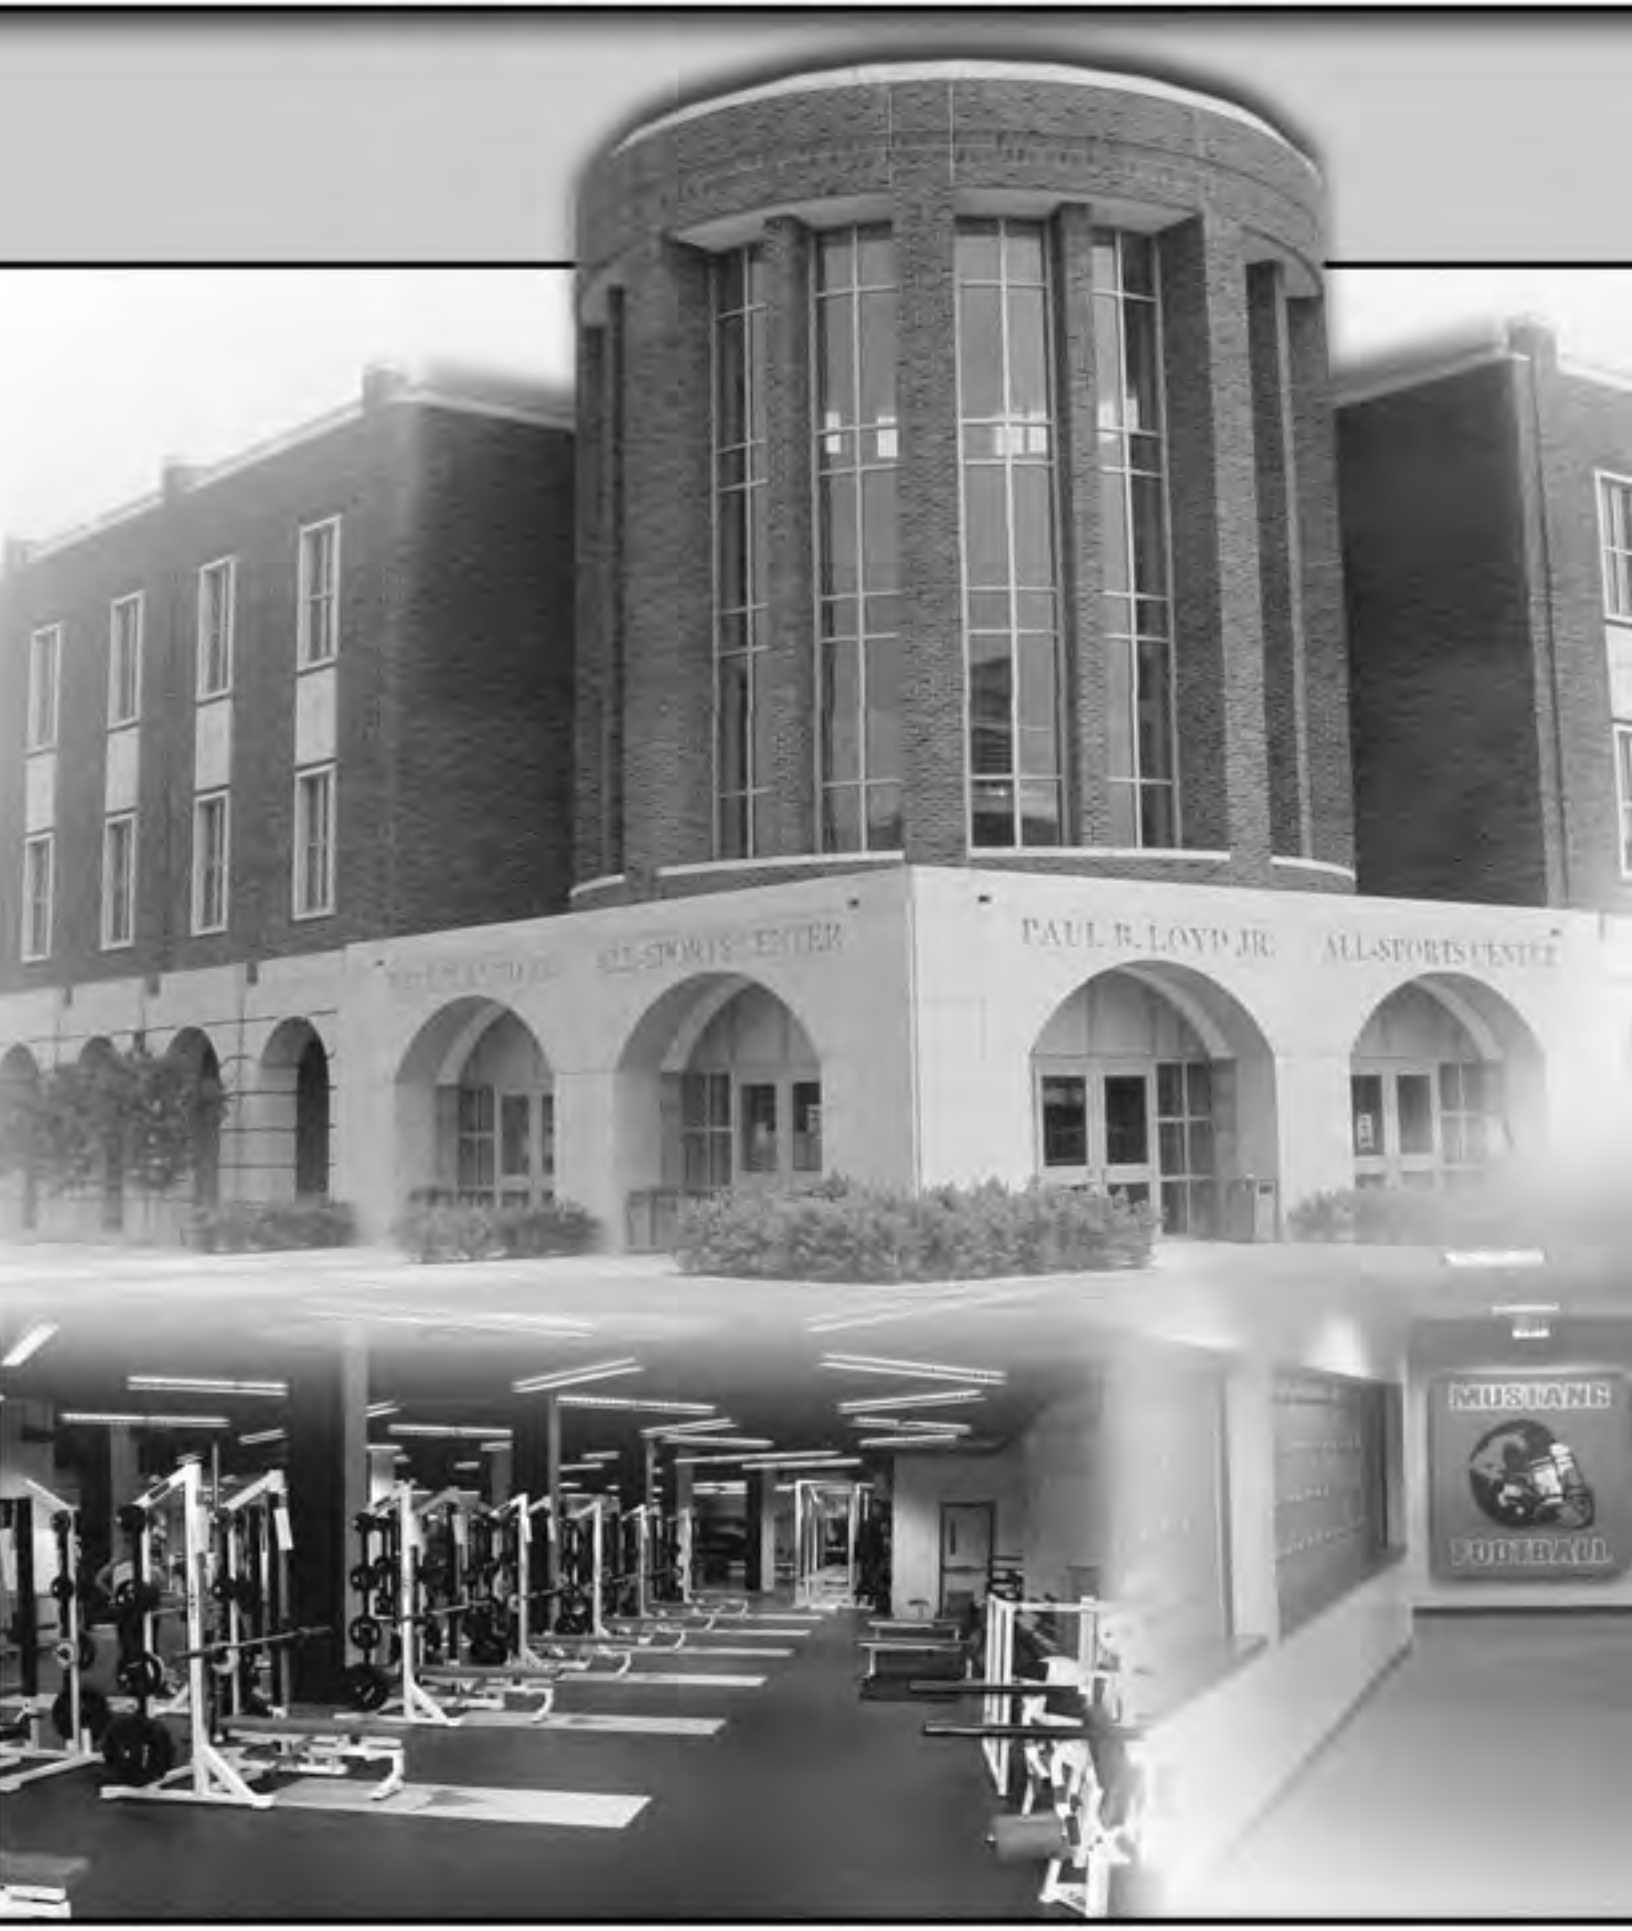

The SMU athletic training program features first-class facilities inside the Paul B. Loyd, Jr. All-Sports Center and the outstanding services of leading sports medicine and health care professionals. SMU Director of Sports Medicine Mike Morton, assistant football trainer Warren Young and the rest of the SMU training staff members work together with physicians to design rehabilitation programs for injured student-athletes to minimize the loss of fitness during recuperative time.

Under Morton's direction, SMU student-athletes are treated by full-time, certified trainers Kelli Clay, Bill Currie, Jeff Mattis, Zack McLeese, Becky Rolke and Josh Stevens.

EQUIPMENT ROOM

The SMU equipment staff handles all of the ordering and inventory of athletic gear for the football team and oversees the team's equipment, locker and team meeting rooms. Director John Mendow supervises an operation that custom fits all Mustang football players for pads, shoes, uniforms and helmets. The equipment staff's facilities inside of the Paul B. Loyd, Jr. All-Sports Center are among the best in the country.

VIC & GLADIE JO SALVINO STRENGTH & CONDITIONING CENTER

"It is the goal of the SMU Strength & Conditioning program to help each student-athlete reach his/her full athletic potential by providing him/her with training programs that are scientifically-based and founded on modern methods of strength & conditioning.

Our motto as a strength & conditioning staff is simple, 'Stay in the Eye of the Storm.'

The most fundamental and important aspect of the SMU strength & conditioning program is that our coaches will always be on the floor coaching athletes. No athlete is left to train on his or her own. Every workout, every exercise, every set and every rep will be monitored by a coach. The coach will teach, instruct, provide feedback and motivate the student-athlete.

The objective of the SMU strength & conditioning staff is not only to produce stronger, better conditioned student-athletes, but also to build discipline and mental toughness in each student-athlete through the implementation of a very structured and organized environment. Student-athletes are held accountable for the commitment and effort that they put into the program, and lifting and conditioning must be viewed as a vital element in the training program for student-athletes of any sport.

The SMU strength & conditioning staff also plays a major role in the nutritional counseling and the implementation of healthy diets for each of our student-athletes. Our staff is responsible for selecting NCAA-approved supplements that we deem the most beneficial to our student-athletes. On a daily basis, our strength & conditioning coaches weigh-in student-athletes to help monitor changes in bodyweight that may be associated with dehydration, illness, skipping meals, overeating, eating junk foods, etc. This is all done in an effort to help our student-athletes reach his or her ideal playing weight and to keep energy levels high and hydration levels sufficient."

VIC VILORIA,
Head Strength & Conditioning Coach

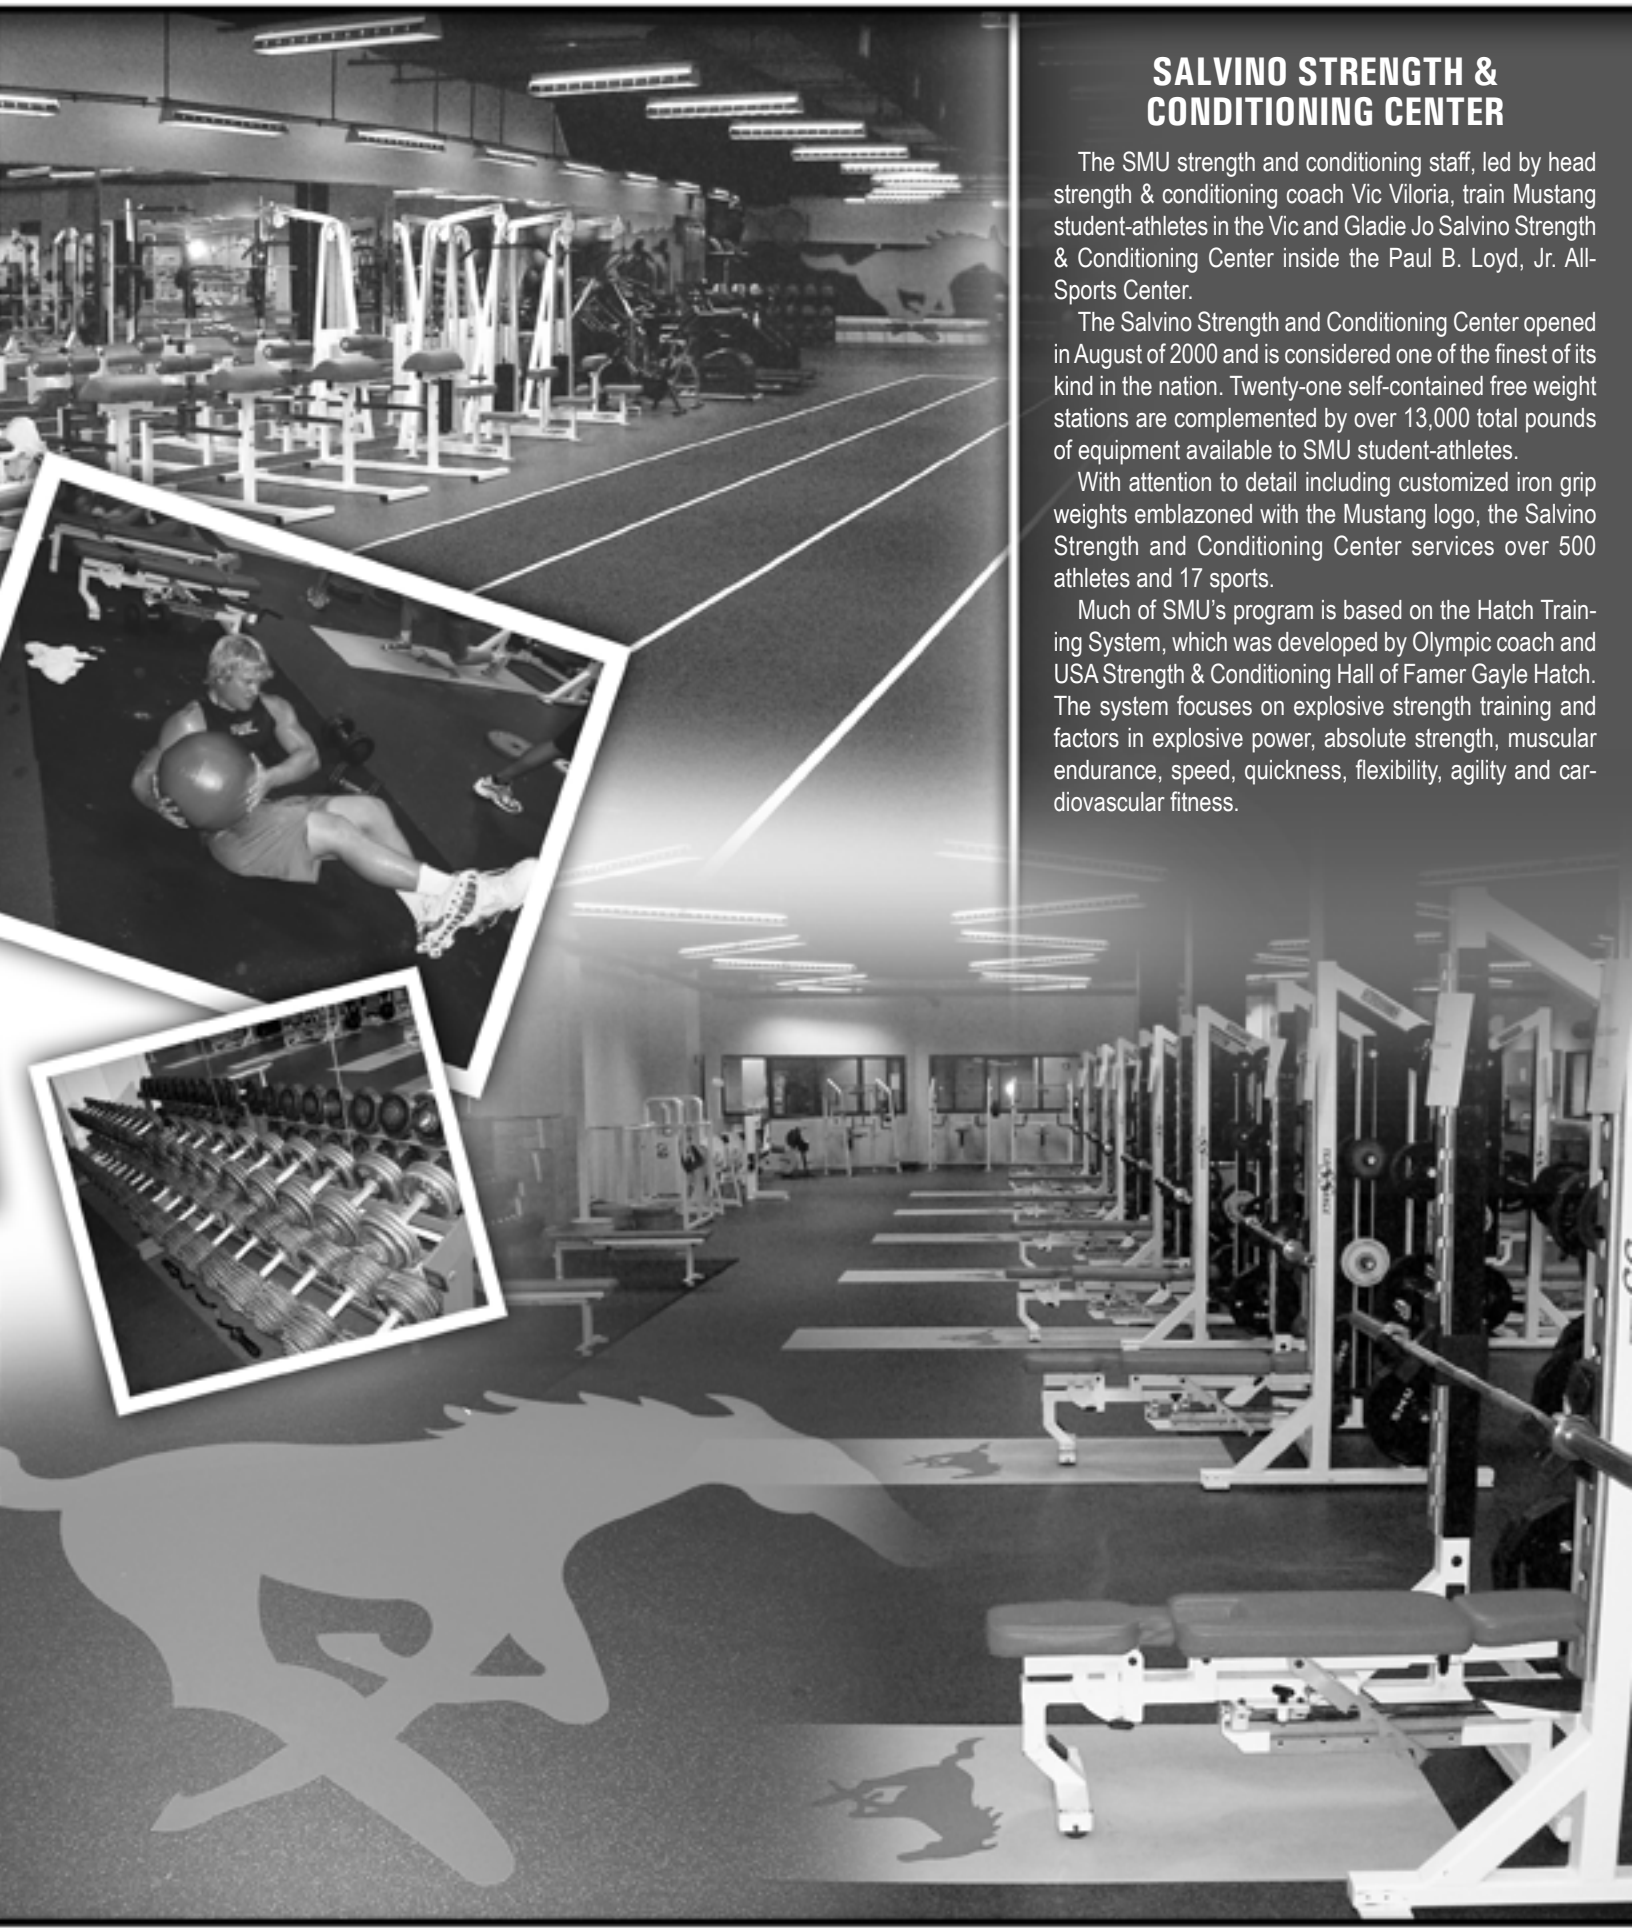

SALVINO STRENGTH & CONDITIONING CENTER

The SMU strength and conditioning staff, led by head strength & conditioning coach Vic Viloria, train Mustang student-athletes in the Vic and Gladie Jo Salvino Strength & Conditioning Center inside the Paul B. Loyd, Jr. All-Sports Center.

The Salvino Strength and Conditioning Center opened in August of 2000 and is considered one of the finest of its kind in the nation. Twenty-one self-contained free weight stations are complemented by over 13,000 total pounds of equipment available to SMU student-athletes.

With attention to detail including customized iron grip weights emblazoned with the Mustang logo, the Salvino Strength and Conditioning Center services over 500 athletes and 17 sports.

Much of SMU's program is based on the Hatch Training System, which was developed by Olympic coach and USA Strength & Conditioning Hall of Famer Gayle Hatch. The system focuses on explosive strength training and factors in explosive power, absolute strength, muscular endurance, speed, quickness, flexibility, agility and cardiovascular fitness.

ALTSHULER LEC
ACADEMIC SUCCESS

SMU student-athletes excel in the classroom, as a remarkable 97 percent of the 386 SMU scholarship student-athletes who entered SMU between 1990 and 2000 and exhausted their eligibility at SMU earned degrees.

Football student-athletes play a big part of SMU's academic success, as 26 players made the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll and four won Commissioner's Academic Medals in 2006. In addition, SMU had players selected to the 11-man C-USA All-Academic Team and the National Football Foundation's National Honor Society.

As a team, SMU won the American Football Coaches Association's 2006 Academic Achievement Award (right) after recording a 100 percent graduation rate. Although it was the Mustangs' first win, SMU has been named to the honorable mention category 11 times.

School-wide, 10 of SMU's 15 athletic programs scored a perfect 100 percent in the NCAA Graduation Success Rates (GSR), and all 15 of SMU's programs rated by the NCAA were equal to or better than the national average. Among the 119 NCAA Division I-A football-playing institutions, SMU had the fifth-highest percentage of its sports with 100 percent scores at 67 percent (10 of 15).

ALEC MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the A-LEC's academic counseling staff is to create a supportive educational environment that assists student-athletes with their transition to the university culture, to guide student-athletes in becoming responsible for their learning by teaching skills that help them identify and pursue their educational goals, and to encourage student-athletes to develop and apply the skills and abilities that will expand their range of personal and professional choices and reinforce the commitment to life-long learning.

Academic support for SMU's varsity athletes is coordinated through the Altshuler Learning Enhancement Center, which opened its doors to the student population in 1989 and has become one of the University's most widely-used student services.

The A-LEC contains the Blanton Academic Development Complex, including three state-of-the-art, fully-networked computer labs; six private rooms for both individual and small group study; an extensive library of audio, video and digital resources; and a large lounge area.

The A-LEC's content-specific services include tutoring, study groups, review sessions and the Writing Center. At the Writing Center, students receive help with the process of drafting and revising a specific project, as well as assistance with grammar, organization and style.

Understanding the distinctive challenges and unique experiences facing student-athletes, the A-LEC's Academic Counselors are responsible for tracking and responding to student-athlete needs at each stage of the academic calendar. The Academic Counselors' work includes pre-advising student-athletes during summer orientation and registration sessions, meeting with all student-athletes to discuss each semester's academic support needs, and conferring with coaches to determine which student-athletes should be recommended for more closely monitored academic assistance.

NATIONAL ATTENTION AT SMU
MEDIA EXPOSURE

Being a Mustang ensures plenty of media exposure. SMU and Conference USA have television contracts with ESPN and CSTV to broadcast Mustang football nationwide. Media interest in SMU Football has soared in the past few seasons and TV and radio stations, newspapers and websites alike have taken notice of this "Program On The Rise." SMU already has five games slated for national TV in 2007 and is fast becoming a major television player.

PONY UP!

There's a sense of excitement around SMU football this season. So SMU Athletics and The Richards Group wanted to come up with something that would tap into that excitement – something provocative, something that will create a buzz and get everyone on board, from the players to the faculty and students, the alumni and the community. That's what we believe we've found in "Pony Up!" It says we're headed in the right direction. It says we've stepped up our game. It says we're committed to making 2007 the year it all turns around. We think it's the kind of thing that will really take hold and get people talking. It's time to Pony Up!

STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COMMITTEE
SAAC

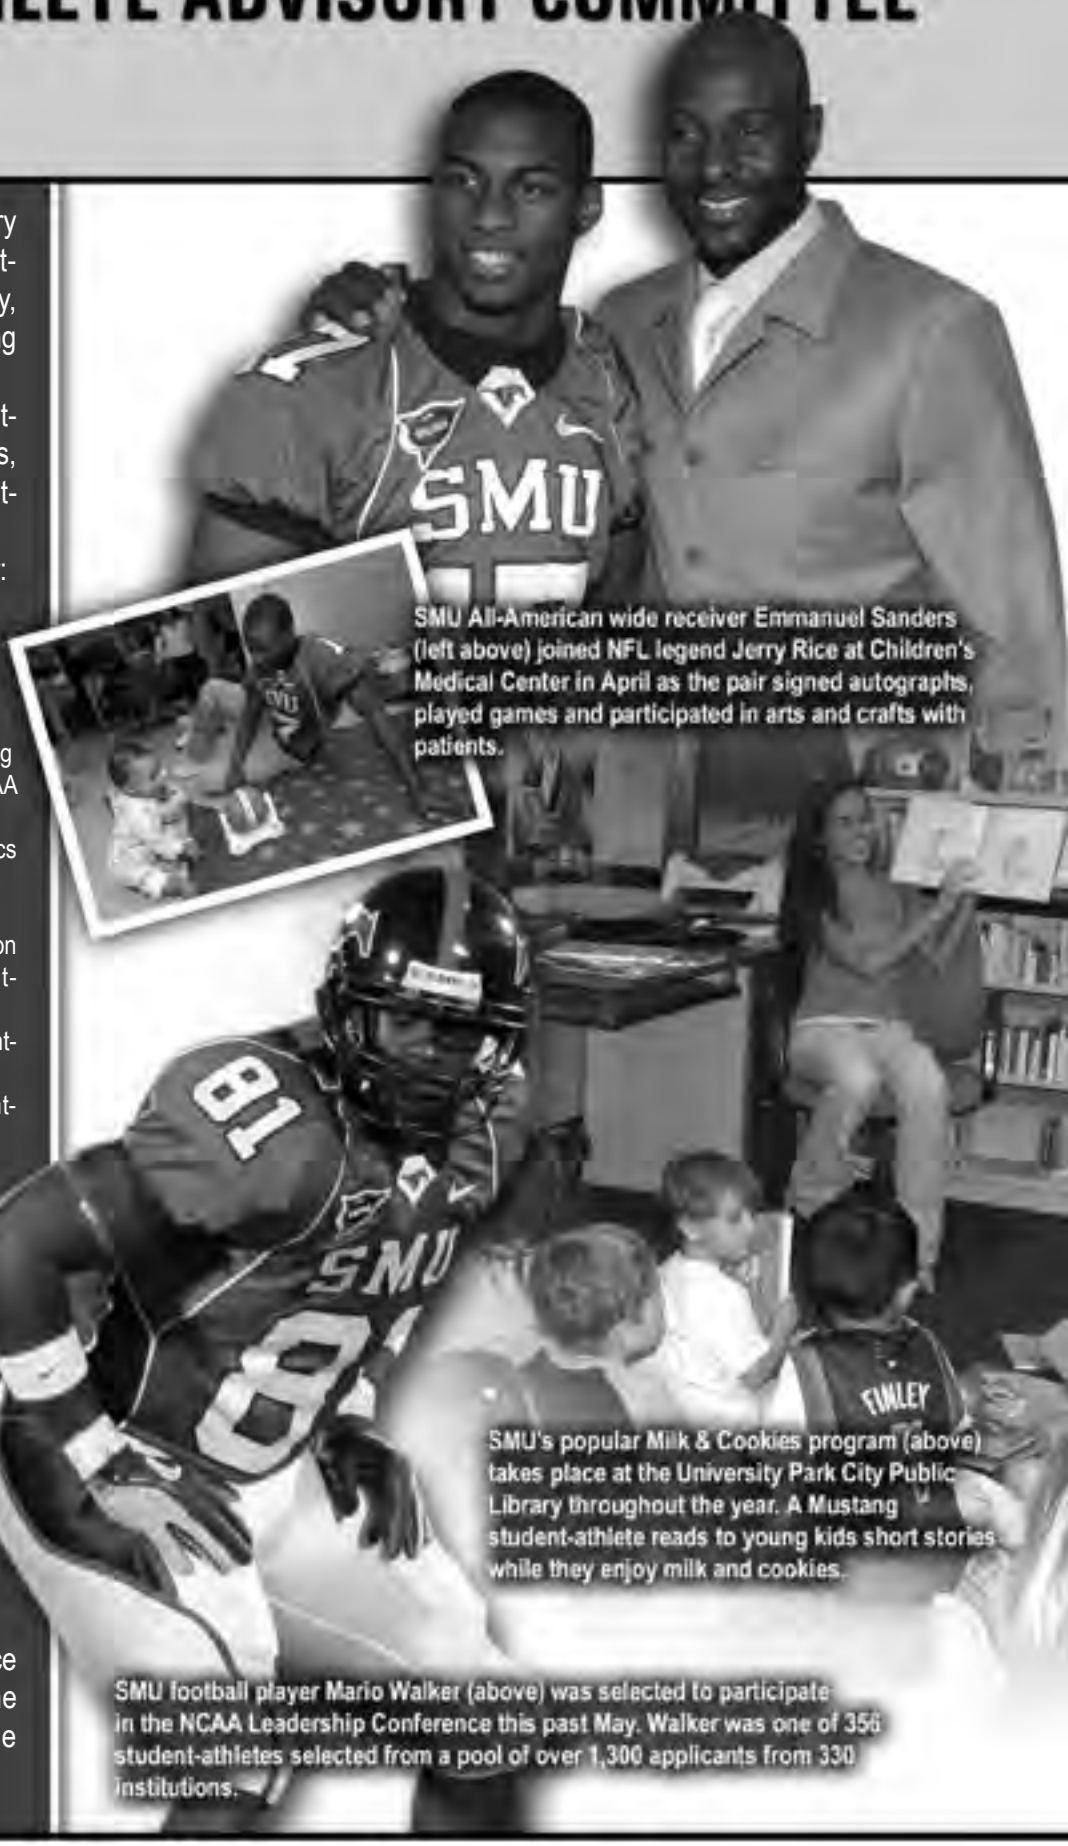

The mission of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by promoting opportunity, protecting student-athlete welfare, and fostering a positive student-athlete image.

The SAAC provides insight on the student-athlete experience and offers input on the rules, regulations, and policies that affect student-athletes' lives.

The Committee is an invaluable resource for:

- Promoting communication between athletics administration and student-athletes
- Promoting communication between athletics and campus-wide administration
- Providing feedback and insight, as well as soliciting responses to department issues and proposed NCAA legislation
- Building a sense of community within the athletics program involving all athletics teams
- Organizing community service projects and efforts
- Creating a vehicle for student-athlete representation on campus-wide committees such as student-government
- Operating as a collective voice of campus student-athletes
- Disseminating information to individual student-athletes

The SMU SAAC is comprised of two members of each sponsored team (one upperclassman and one underclassman), along with representatives from supporting organizations (band, cheer, dance, training). During the monthly meetings, SMU SAAC works from a formal agenda and focuses on discussions involving NCAA legislation. There are also question-and-answer sessions with university and athletic department administrators. SMU SAAC is positioned to increase opportunity for service to the community and to help enhance the image of Mustang student-athletes in the community.

2007 OUTLOOK

2007 SEASON OUTLOOK

Justin Willis returns after setting new SMU records for TD passes and TDs accounted-for in a season

The 2006 season showcased a bright future for SMU Football. The Mustangs upped their win total for the third straight season, posted their highest win total in a decade and reached bowl-eligibility all while featuring a slew of talented young players.

SMU student-athletes filled a Conference USA-high six spots on the All-Freshman team and also took two spots on The Sporting News' Freshman All-America squad. Quarterback Justin Willis and wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders each set new school records in various categories and Willis was named the C-USA Freshman of the Year by numerous outlets. Willis and Sanders combine with 2005 honorees DeMyron Martin and Jessie Henderson to give SMU four former frosh All-Americans on its 2007 roster.

SMU continues to win off the field as well, as the Mustangs received the American Football Coaches Association's 2006 Academic Achievement Award after the school recorded a 100 percent graduation rate.

As the 2007 season draws near, SMU coaches, players and fans alike are filled with anticipation and hopes of a Conference USA championship and the Mustangs' first bowl berth in 23 years.

QUARTERBACKS

For the first time in Bennett's tenure, SMU returns a clear-cut quarterback favorite. Justin Willis was a revelation to Mustang fans as a freshman in 2006, taking the gridiron by storm. Willis completed 182 of 270 pass attempts on the year for 2,047 yards with 26 TDs and just six interceptions, earning All-C-USA honors in the process. He had three four-plus-TD-pass games and set a new SMU record for TD passes in a season. His 158.4 passing efficiency rating ranked second in Conference USA and 10th in Division I-A. Willis did suffer a broken hand in January and was somewhat hampered during spring drills.

Backing up Willis is redshirt freshman Zach Rhodes, who will also see playing time at wide receiver. Rhodes is an extremely athletic player who runs a sub-4.4 40, giving SMU a tremedous run-pass threat.

"Justin improved in the off-season," said Head Coach Phil Bennett. "I appreciated his toughness going through the spring less than a month after major hand surgery. He may not have been 100 percent, but his toughness impressed me."

"Zach gives us a multi-dimensional guy," continued Bennett. "We played him in a couple of different places this spring and we'll continue to do that in the fall. He's an athlete that needs to be on the field."

RUNNING BACKS

SMU's running game was hampered by injuries in 2006, as preseason All-C-USA back DeMyron Martin suffered a foot injury in week two at North Texas. Martin missed five of the next six games and only broke the 100-yard mark in the season finale at Rice. Martin showed a new dedication in the spring and looks to regain his freshman form in 2007.

"DeMyron had a much better spring," said Bennett. "He has made a real commitment to this program and to himself. He's ready to show people what he's capable of doing this season."

If there was a silver lining to Martin's injury cloud, it was that several other backs got significant playing time. Cedrick Dorsey, James Mapps and Fred Turner each had opportunities, with Mapps and Turner posting 100-yard games. All three return in 2007.

"At running back, we have five guys we're very comfortable with - DeMyron Martin, Cedrick Dorsey, James Mapps, Fred Turner and Chris Butler. They're all capable guys - and guys a lot of teams would like to have."

TIGHT ENDS

At tight end, former prep All-American Vincent Chase will become the featured end with the graduation of three-year starter Ryan Kennedy. Chase started four games in 2006, but could become a focus of the offense in 2007.

"Simply put, Vincent Chase has a chance to be the best tight end we've had here," said Bennett.

Chase will be backed up by running back-turned-fullback-turned-tight end Andrew McKinney and Mario Walker. All three should see time in SMU's multiple-end formations.

WIDE RECEIVERS

While the experience of Bobby Chase and Reynaldo Pellerin will be missed at wide receiver, SMU features a nice young corps of talented wideouts.

After his breakout freshman season, any discussion of SMU receivers has to begin with Emmanuel Sanders. An All-Conference USA pick in 2006, Sanders recorded team-highs with 46 grabs for 605 yards and nine TDs - the most ever by a freshman at SMU. He hauled in scoring passes in six straight games to break Jerry LeVias' 29-year-old SMU record for consecutive games with a TD catch and his 151 receiving yards against Houston made him the first SMU player with 150-or-more receiving yards in a game since 1998.

SMU also returns Zack Sledge and Columbus Givens, each of whom had starts last season, while Devin Lowery returns to the offense after spending the 2007 season as a starter at corner.

"At wide receiver, Emmanuel, Zack, Columbus and Devin are guys that we really like," said Bennett. "Our goal right now is to develop some depth behind them. We're moving Jessie Henderson to the slot from running back and Zach Zimmerman is a solid backup, but we have to get some other guys to step up. Wideout is a spot where some true freshmen have a chance to get in the mix."

OFFENSIVE LINE

While the Mustangs return four of the five 2006 starters along the offensive line, they will have a little different look in 2007 as starting center Ben Poynter moves to left tackle and Mitch Enright gets the nod at center. Sean Lobo and Caleb Peveto missed spring drills, but are expected to start in the upcoming season alongside returning right tackle Kenard Burley.

"Kenard just continued to get better this spring and moving Ben to left tackle was really a positive move for us," said Bennett. "Mitch emerged at center and will help us this season. Our line has a chance to be solid - possibly two-deep solid. While it was disappointing that Sean and Caleb could not go through the spring, it was good for Tommy Poynter and Joe Holmes to get all those reps with our first team. Lucky DeLay and Chase Smith are two other guys that could see playing time. That would give us two left tackles, two left guards, two right guards, two right tackles and two centers. That gives us a complete two-deep without having to rely on any freshmen."

OFFENSIVE WRAP-UP

"We will be an improved offense," said Bennett. "We tweaked a few things in our run game and addressed our short yardage situations this spring and that should really help us. To reach our goals, we must protect the football and still have the ability to score 28 to 32 points a game. We made a dramatic improvement last year in scoring offense and when we bring our running game up, we'll be an improved football team. I'm very encouraged about what we did offensively in the spring and I believe we're on the right track."

DEFENSIVE LINE

"On the defensive line, losing three starters poses a challenge. Having Cory Muse back, though, will be huge. Cory will be a four-year starter and should have a big senior season. Last season, he played on a bum knee the last five games, missed two games and still finished third in the league in sacks with seven. He's a playmaker."

Muse was indeed a force in 2006, earning second-team All-Conference USA honors from the league's media. He helped anchor an SMU defense that led C-USA and ranked 24th in the nation against the run and ranked sixth individually in the conference in tackles-for-loss with 10.5.

That said, perhaps the biggest question facing SMU as it enters 2007 will be the additions to the starting front four.

"In addition to Cory, Charlie Berry and Patrick Handy will return up front and those guys have played a lot of football," said Bennett. "They know the tempo of the game and can help our younger kids get to the level of where we need them to be. Charlie worked hard to get back to where he is, but he still has to be more consistent. Patrick, on the other hand, filled in well last season when Justin Rogers was hurt and played at a very high level."

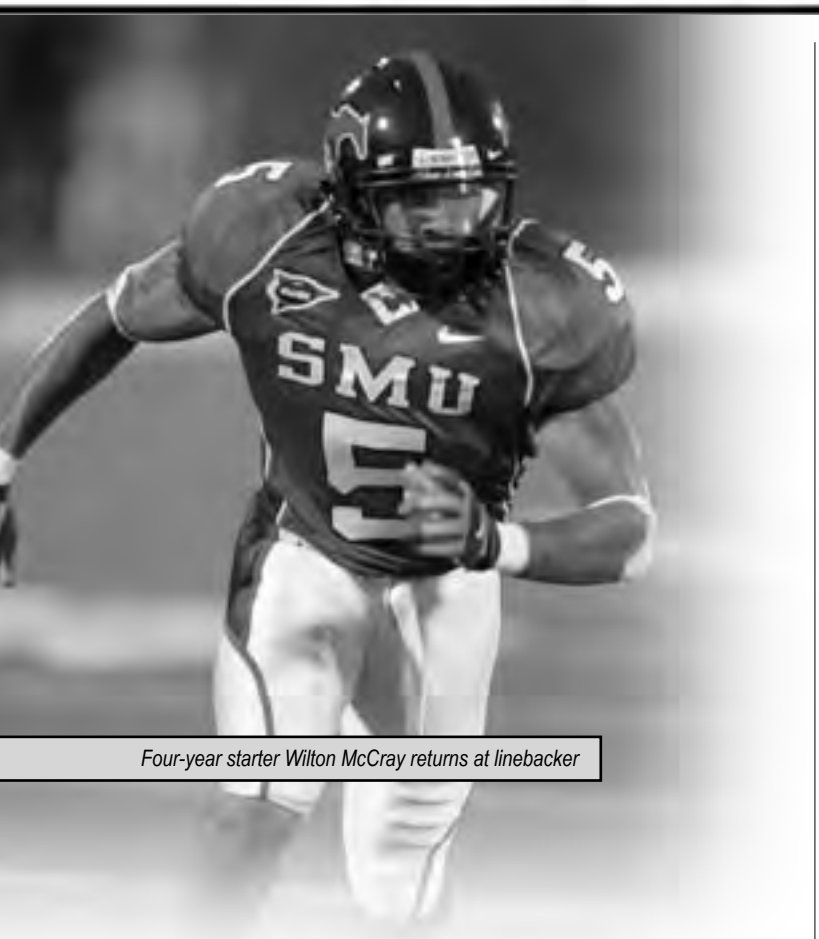

Berry and Handy have both seen substantial playing time. Berry has played in 30 games for SMU at tackle over three seasons, while Handy played in 10 in 2006 at end, starting twice.

"Inside, we have a lot of possibilities. Chris Parham, Zac Thomas, Ryan Leonard, Mickey Dollens and Kyle DeGroat are all potential players for us. They're not at the level we need them at yet, but every one of them got better this spring and will continue to improve this fall."

"At defensive end, we were impressed by Justin Smart. We moved him from linebacker, and he's a guy that's explosive and can move. Kyle Griffin also had a good spring and showed his maturity at the position. He can be a very productive player. Adrian Dizer had some very bright moments and Jordan Johnson is a guy that has a lot of snap at the position."

Four-year starter Cory Muse anchors the defensive line for SMU entering 2007

LINEBACKERS

Two SMU linebackers – Wilton McCray and Tony Hawkins – will return in 2007. The duo combined for an impressive 123 tackles, 15 for-loss, a sack and three interceptions in 2006.

"At linebacker, our starters will be as good as anybody's in the conference. Wilton McCray is a four-year starter and Tony Hawkins made huge strides in the spring. Damon Hurst was a special teams demon last season and we moved him to middle linebacker this spring and that was a good move. I feel really good about those guys."

"Will Bonilla is a guy that has experience and is a tremendous back-up. We're still looking for more depth, but Taylor Bon, Ryan Moczygemba, Jason Jackson, Chase Kennemer and Pete Fleps will all get more looks this fall. We just need those guys to step up."

SECONDARY

SMU will certainly miss four-year starter and All-Conference player Joe Sturdivant in 2007, but will counter his loss with the return of three starters and the addition of a talented junior college defender.

"In the secondary, we've got three good corners and have to find a fourth," said Bennett. "We really have three starters at corner – Bryan McCann, Jonathan Lindley and Brandon Jones. Tim Crosby showed some things this spring and could be that fourth guy, but he's just not as consistent as the other three yet. Our fifth corner spot is going to come down to a battle between La'Cori Johnson, Derrius Bell and A'Darius Medford. When it's all said and done, this could be the best group we've had."

"At safety, Bryce Hudman had a good spring. He started a lot of games as a redshirt freshman and has all the tools. His knowledge showed this spring. I was also very pleased with Rock Dennis. Rock came in from junior college and adjusted well. He got better and is a real playmaker. He's a guy that will fit into our package well. David Haynes showed some consistency back there after we moved him from corner and he and Rock are having a nice battle."

SPECIAL TEAMS

"As far as the kicking game goes, we individualized things last year and let Kellis Cunningham kick off while Thomas Morstead punted and kicked our field goals. That worked well and we plan on doing the same thing this season."

It did indeed work well, with Morstead earning All-C-USA honors as a punter and Cunningham averaging 61.4 yards per kickoff with 16 touchbacks.

"Thomas is a guy who's very athletic and has an explosive leg. On kicks, his consistency has to become better and his directional punting could improve, but he did hit 13 of 18 field goal tries and averaged almost 44 yards a punt."

On returns, 2005 All-American Jessie Henderson should be back at 100 percent and will be a serious threat to opponents.

"Having Jessie back will be big," said Bennett. "We'll also bring Aldrick Robinson into the mix and both of them could be All-American kick returners."

"Punt returns are a concern right now, but we've got Columbus Givens, Bryan McCann, Emmanuel Sanders and Zach Sledge, just to name a few, that could handle the job."

FINAL THOUGHTS

"It was great to be playing for a conference championship last November. That has been one of our goals since we got here - to be playing meaningful games late in the season. We still need to improve our consistency, however, if we want to compete for conference titles. Last season we didn't reach all our expectations, but there were some positives and one of those positives was that our best players were our younger players. We're excited about the guys we have coming back – on both sides of the ball. A bowl game is an absolute possibility. Our guys will grow from last year's experience. We'll be a better football team and we're going in with the goal of being Conference USA Football Champions."

PLAYERS

92 - CHARLIE BERRY

6-3 | 280 | DT | SR-3L
Dallas, Texas
(Highland Park)

Returns to the defensive line after sitting out last season;

2006: Sat out the season as a redshirt;

Junior (2005): Played in all 11 games, starting at Marshall... Had five tackles on the year including one sack... Notched a season-high two stops against East Carolina;

Sophomore (2004): Saw time in all 11 games in the trenches, starting the last two... Had 26 tackles including three for-loss... Had a good game at TCU with four tackles and two takedowns-for-loss;

Freshman (2003): Played in eight games, starting one... Had 13 tackles... Had become part of the defensive line rotation until suffering an injury;

Prep: Team captain his senior season at Highland Park... Named first-team All-District 12-4A in 2002... Recorded 87 tackles, three sacks and 12 quarterback pressures... Also forced and recovered three fumbles... Earned honorable mention All-District honors as a junior when he totaled 47 tackles, three sacks and three fumble recoveries... Two-year letterman whose team went 25-3 over his final two seasons... Also competed in track and field... Coached in high school by SMU graduate Randy Allen... Selected SMU over Baylor and Navy;

Personal: Sister Nancy graduated from SMU... Grandfather Lindy Berry played quarterback at TCU (1946-49) where he earned All-Southwest Conference honors twice and was an All-American in his senior season... Sociology major.

COACHING STAFF

PHIL BENNETT

Head Coach
Sixth Season
Texas A&M, '78

After guiding SMU to bowl eligibility and improving the team's win total for the third straight season in 2006, Head Coach Phil Bennett is poised to take the Mustang program to even greater heights in the future.

The 2006 season served as a preview of a bright future to SMU fans as the Mustangs posted their highest win total in a decade while featuring a slew of talented young players. SMU student-athletes filled a Conference USA-high six spots on the All-Freshman team and also claimed two spots on The Sporting News' Freshman All-America squad. Bennett recruits Justin Willis and Emmanuel Sanders each set new school records in various categories and Willis was named the C-USA Freshman of the Year by numerous outlets.

Off the gridiron, Bennett has SMU student-athletes reaching new heights as well. SMU received the American Football Coaches Association's 2006 Academic Achievement Award after the school recorded a 100 percent graduation rate when all members of its freshman class of 2000-2001 earned a degree.

The 2005 season was full of highlights, too, like SMU's first win over a ranked team since 1986, a 3-1 record against Bowl teams, and a three-game win streak to end the season - SMU's longest since 1999. Seven Mustangs were named All-Conference USA and two were tabbed freshman All-Americans as national media outlets have taken notice of SMU. ESPN, CBS Sportline, CSTV and FoxSports all sang the praises of SMU and Bennett in 2005.

For his efforts, Bennett was awarded a contract extension in January of 2006 that will keep him on the Hilltop through at least the 2009 season.

Bennett has had the SMU program moving in the right direction ever since becoming the 15th head coach in SMU football history on Dec. 5, 2001.

A Marshall, Texas, native, Bennett has always had a special fondness for SMU, going all the way back to his senior year in high school. As a highly-regarded linebacker prospect, he was being recruited by all of the schools in the Southwest Conference and made an official visit to the Hilltop.

"When I came back from SMU, I told my mother that's where I wanted to go to school," Bennett said at his hiring. "My mom wanted me to go to Texas A&M, though, and that is where I ended up. SMU made an impression on me though and it was never lost on me."

"When I got into coaching, I always kept an eye on SMU. I always thought there would be a time and place where we would meet. This is the right job at the right time for me. Dreams do come true because I am here at SMU."

Bennett's gained his coaching reputation as one of the premier defensive coordinators in the nation during the 10 years prior to his arrival at SMU. From 1999-2001, he guided Kansas State's defense to national rankings of third, fourth and second, respectively. He was particularly proud of his 2001 defense when the Wildcats had lost eight starters on defense from the previous season.

From the moment Bennett arrived at SMU, he has had Mustang backers as excited as they have been about the program in recent memory.

He boldly stated on his first day on the job that his goal is to win a conference championship, winning praise from his players and Mustang supporters. He has put together an outstanding coaching staff with deep ties to Texas. Every assistant coach on staff is either a native or has coached and recruited the Lone Star state. Those ties have reaped big rewards in recruiting as the Mustangs have been able to sign some of the state's top players during his tenure.

His spring coaches' clinic is attended by more than 250 high school coaches from around the region each year, and SMU's spring game is now a recruiting event as more than 200 recruits and their families have toured Ford Stadium and the Loyd All-Sports Center before each season.

Bennett's infectious personality and can-do attitude have not only captured the attention of his players but also SMU students and supporters. He has toured fraternity and sorority houses during the spring to drum up student support and has been a fixture on the Dallas and SMU alumni speaking circuits since taking the job.

"One of the first things that struck me in our initial conversation was how prepared he was," said SMU Athletic Director Jim Copeland, the man who hired Bennett. "He knew our history, our players, our recruits, the league. He was very impressive in that initial meeting. He has a personality that just grabs you. He has never met a stranger."

And SMU was no stranger to Bennett, who is now leading the Mustang Football program back to prominence.

NEWS & NOTES

- SMU Head Coach Phil Bennett accepted the American Football Coaches Association's 2006 Academic Achievement Award at the AFCA's yearly meetings. The SMU football program earned the award after recording a 100 percent graduation rate when all members of its freshman class of 2000-2001 earned a degree.

- The Awards and Recognition Association presented the SMU football team with the first ARA Sportsmanship Team Award for helping the Tulane football team in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina.

- SMU senior defensive end Justin Rogers was selected by the New England Patriots with their sixth-round pick in the 2007 NFL Draft. Rogers is the first Mustang to be taken in the NFL Draft since defensive back Kevin Garrett was selected in the fifth round of the 2003 Draft by the St. Louis Rams.

- SMU standouts Ryan Kennedy, Justin Rogers and Joe Sturdivant played in the first-annual All-American Challenge: Texas Vs. The Nation All-Star Bowl.

- Mario Walker was one of 356 student-athletes nationwide selected to participate in the NCAA Leadership Conference at Disney's Coronado Springs Resort in Lake Buena Vista, Fla.

- Jeff Brock, Mitch Enright, Pete Fleps and Andrew Galloway each earned Conference USA Commissioner's Academic Medals.

- Glenn Asplin, Lucas Bell, Will Bonilla, Kirby Braband, Jeff Brock, Pace Doherty, Mitch Enright, Pete Fleps, Andrew Galloway, Bruce Greenberg, Brayden Harris, Duke Hasson, Damon Hurst, Jason Jackson, Chance Kennemer, Brad Lankford, Shaun Moore, Thomas Morstead, Ben Poynter, Tommy Poynter, Trent Sawyer, Zack Sledge, Chase Smith, Jackson Taylor, Rory Taylor and Troy Therien made the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll.

- Duke Hasson was selected to the inaugural NFF National Honor Society.

SMU	3
No. 25 TEXAS TECH	35

Graham Harrell threw for 342 yards and five touchdowns in his first start for No. 25 Texas Tech and the Red Raiders beat SMU, 35-3, on Sept. 2.

Harrell, who completed 34-of-49 passes, showed poise even as the Mustangs pressured him with numerous blitzes.

SMU jumped in front with a field goal and had a good opportunity to pull within 11 points early in the second half. Blake Warren nearly returned a punt for a touchdown but was tackled by Tech punter Alex Reyes at the Red Raiders' 26.

Four plays later, after first-time starting quarterback Justin Willis fumbled the snap and lost nine yards, the Mustangs missed a field goal from 49 yards to trail 21-3.

SMU	6
NORTH TEXAS	24

Woody Wilson passed for 103 yards and rushed for 74, including a 33-yard run touchdown in the third quarter, as North Texas topped SMU, 24-6, on Sept. 9.

The victory for North Texas was only the school's fourth in 32 meetings against SMU.

SMU got its first touchdown of the season in the third quarter when Columbus Givens caught a 12-yard pass from Justin Willis. Willis completed 15 of 19 passes for 112 yards.

DeMyron Martin had 55 yards on 13 carries for SMU in the first quarter before spraining his right foot. He returned to the sidelines wearing a boot and did not re-enter the game.

Sept. 23, 2006 - Gerald J. Ford Stadium - Dallas, Texas

ARKANSAS ST.	9
SMU	55

Justin Willis threw four touchdown passes, including three to tight end Ryan Kennedy in the first half, to lead SMU past Arkansas State, 55-9.

The Mustangs scored more than 40 points for the second straight week, the first time that has happened since 1982. They also won a second nonconference game for the first time in coach Phil Bennett's five seasons.

Willis, who was 15-of-24 for 151 yards with one interception, had scoring tosses of 6, 4, 24 and 10 yards, giving him nine TD throws in two games. SMU finished with 457 yards of offense to 262 for the Indians.

2006 GAME RECAPS

Sept. 30, 2006 - The Superdome - New Orleans, La.

SMU	33
TULANE	28

Justin Willis passed for 267 yards and two touchdowns to lead the SMU Mustangs to a 33-28 win over Tulane on Saturday in the Green Wave's first game at the Superdome since Hurricane Katrina. Willis also ran for 75 yards and a touchdown in front of an announced crowd of 21,565. SMU won its third straight game.

Willis, who had completed 77 percent of his passes and thrown nine touchdown passes the last two weeks, helped offset the passing of Tulane's Lester Ricard, who overcame a poor first half to go 29-for-48 for 394 yards and three touchdowns.

SMU opened the game's scoring when Willis threw a 6-yard touchdown to Zack Sledge early in the first quarter.

The Mustangs increased the lead to 10-0 when Morstead kicked a 34-yard field goal with 6:35 remaining in the second quarter. Willis' 1-yard touchdown run gave SMU a 17-0 lead with 45 seconds remaining in the first half.

SMU	21
UTEP	24

Marcus Thomas threw a 27-yard touchdown to Daniel Robinson on a halfback option in the fourth quarter as UTEP rallied to beat SMU, 24-21, on Oct. 7.

Thomas' touchdown pass with 8:28 left capped an 87-yard drive and put UTEP back on top after the Miners blew a 17-0 halftime lead.

SMU scored 21 consecutive points in the second half behind backup quarterback Corey Slater, who threw a 19-yard touchdown to Bobby Chase and an 18-yard score to Emmanuel Sanders in the third quarter.

SMU took a brief lead on Jonathan Lindley's 80-yard fumble return with 11:54 remaining, but UTEP answered with the Robinson's winning touchdown catch on the next drive.

Joe Sturdivant led SMU defensively, notching 16 stops, two pass breakups, an interception and a forced fumble

MARSHALL	21
SMU	31

Justin Willis threw for 208 yards and four touchdowns off the bench in his return to action as SMU beat Marshall, 31-21.

Willis completed 20 of 23 passes after replacing Corey Slater in the second quarter. Willis' third touchdown pass, a 7-yard score to Reynaldo Pellerin with 6:38 remaining, gave SMU the lead. Less than a minute later, Willis sealed the win with a 17-yard touchdown to Ryan Kennedy.

With the win, SMU improves to 4-3 on the season, its best start since a 5-2 mark in 1986. SMU has also won five straight home games, which is the most since a seven game streak over 1981 and 1982.

Devin Lowery had all three interceptions for SMU, becoming just the eighth player in school history to notch three or more picks in a game.

Emmanuel Sanders set an SMU school record with a touchdown reception in his fifth straight game after catching a 3-yard score from Willis in the third. He led SMU with 62 yards on six receptions.

In addition to Lowery's three picks, SMU was helped defensively by Joe Sturdivant, who registered a game-high 12 stops.

EAST CAROLINA	38

James Pinkney threw for two touchdowns and ran for a score Saturday to lead East Carolina past SMU, 38-21.

Justin Willis threw three touchdown passes, two to Emmanuel Sanders, for the Mustangs, who fought back to tie it after a 14-0 first-quarter deficit but never led.

East Carolina scored touchdowns on its first two drives, then answered a tying score from SMU with a long drive just before halftime that put the Pirates ahead to stay at 21-14 on Simmons' second 1-yard scoring run.

The Mustangs didn't help themselves with several mistakes, including an holding penalty that negated a 67-yard punt return for a score by Blake Warren. Thomas Morstead also missed a 45-yard field goal in the third quarter that would have cut the deficit to seven points with 4:27 left in the third.

SMU rallied with two TD drives, each ending with TD passes from Willis to Sanders, to tie the game at 14 with 5:34 left in the first half. But the Pirates answered with a 14-play, 85-yard drive and Simmons' score for the 21-14 lead with 29 seconds in the half.

2006 GAME RECAPS

Oct. 31, 2006 - Gerald J. Ford Stadium - Dallas, Texas

UAB	9
SMU	22

Justin Willis threw for 148 yards and one touchdown and linebacker Tony Hawkins returned an interception for another score as SMU defeated UAB, 22-9, on Halloween.

Willis, who completed 18-of-23 passes, hit Vincent Chase on a 3-yard touchdown pass with 1:38 left in the first half for a 7-3 SMU lead. It was Chase's first career TD catch.

Hawkins sealed the game after he intercepted a Chris Williams pass and returned it 11 yards for a touchdown with 2:34 left in the game.

The Mustangs have won six straight home games dating to last season, which is the most since a seven-game streak over 1981-82.

UAB failed to score a touchdown on four drives that reached inside the SMU 25-yard line and had to settle for a 25- and 26-yard field goals by Waters in the first half as well as a 37-yard attempt that drifted wide left in the third quarter.

The Mustangs' first score was set up after an offside penalty on UAB linebacker Mastaki Smith on Thomas Morstead's 31-yard field goal attempt gave SMU a first down at the UAB 9-yard line. Three plays later, Willis connected with Chase.

The Mustangs now have 23 TD passes on the season, which is a new SMU record. This was also the first time SMU has held an opponent without a TD since a 28-0 victory at Hawaii in 1998.

Defensively, SMU was led by Adrian Haywood's five tackles, two tackles-for-loss, a sack and a forced fumble.

HOUSTON	37
SMU	27

Despite fighting back from an early 14-0 deficit, SMU was unable to hold off Houston, falling 37-27 to the Cougars. After falling behind 14-0 in the game's first seven minutes, SMU scored 24 consecutive points for a 24-14 halftime lead.

Justin Willis had scoring tosses of 16 and 17 yards to Emmanuel Sanders and a 37-yard strike to DeMyron Martin during that stretch. Willis finished the game 23 of 36 for a career-high 299 yards.

The 17-yard touchdown pass to Sanders tied the game with 1:57 left in the first quarter and gave Willis, a redshirt freshman, the school record for touchdown passes in a season with 22. The previous record had been set by Chuck Hixson in 1968.

Anthony Aldridge ran for a career-high 225 yards and scored two touchdowns to lead Houston. Aldridge's second touchdown run of the game tied the score at 24 with 2:05 left in the third quarter before the Mustangs briefly regained the lead on a 35-yard field goal by Thomas Morstead with 12:12 left in the game.

2006 GAME RECAPS

Nov. 18, 2006 - Gerald J. Ford Stadium - Dallas, Texas

TULSA	24
SMU	34

Justin Willis threw for two touchdowns and ran for another to lead SMU to a 34-24 win over Tulsa on Nov. 18. The Mustangs scored 27 consecutive second-half points to erase a 17-point halftime deficit, tying for the third-largest comeback in school history.

SMU took its first lead at 27-24 with 12:46 left in the game after Willis scored on a 6-yard touchdown run and ran in the two-point conversion. With the touchdown, Willis set a school record for touchdowns accounted for in a season with 28, the previous record had been set by Chuck Hixson in 1968.

Wide receiver Blake Warren scored on a 14-yard run with 4:31 left in the game to extend the SMU lead to 10 points. Willis threw a lateral to Warren, who broke two tackles on the way to the end zone.

The Mustangs became bowl eligible with the win and won at least six games for only the second time since1987.

Willis completed 11 of 18 passes for 190 yards with scoring tosses of 8 and 10 yards and led SMU with 93 yards rushing on 17 attempts. His 8-yard touchdown pass with 1:25 left in the third quarter to Reynaldo Pellerin came five plays after the Mustangs' Andrew McKinney recovered Nick Graham's fumbled kickoff return at the Tulsa 24-yard line.

Nov. 25, 2006 - Rice Stadium - Houston, Texas

SMU	27
RICE	31

Jarett Dillard scored three touchdowns and Rice secured its first bowl appearance since 1961 with a 31-27 win over SMU. SMU remained eligible to receive a bowl bid.

SMU led 27-24 when Dillard caught the game-winning touchdown pass on a 25-yard strike from quarterback Joel Armstrong with 4:05 remaining. The Owls secured the win about three minutes later when SMU's Justin Willis was intercepted by Bencil Smith at the Rice 4-yard line.

After Willis threw a 33-yard touchdown pass to Columbus Givens, Cedrick Dorsey scored on a 5-yard run and defensive tackle Brandon Bonds recovered a fumble in the end zone for a 21-17 SMU lead with 6:34 left before halftime.

Rice tied the game at 24-24 on a 20-yard Armstrong-to-Dillard touchdown pass in the third quarter.

DeMyron Martin's 101 yards rushing led SMU and marked his first 100-yard game of the season and the fifth of his career. Justin Rogers led the defensive effort with 10 tackles.

LEVIAS BREAKS DOWN WALLS

Jerry LeVias has overcome many obstacles in his life to achieve his success. LeVias suffered a stroke at the age of 12 which left him unable to walk for five years, but rebounded to become a barrier-breaker in college football.

The turbulent 1960s saw a huge change in the SMU football program when LeVias accepted the Mustangs' offer to become the first African-American football player to earn an athletic scholarship in the Southwest Conference.

LeVias earned All-America and All-SWC honors while on the Hilltop...

And was later honored for his induction into the College Football Hall of Fame.

LeVias, who chose SMU largely because of its accounting program, eventually was named All-American, Academic All-American and Southwest Conference Player of the Year in 1968 when he set the SMU record for receiving yards in a season (1,131).

A coach of a high school all-star team of which LeVias was a member said of the wide receiver, "He'll make a good coach out of someone." That coach's name was Doak Walker, the same man who would see many of his own collegiate records broken by LeVias.

The Houston native was inducted into the Hall in December 2003.

RETIRED JERSEYS

The 2000 football season saw SMU honor five former Mustang greats by retiring their jerseys. Pro Football Hall of Famers Lamar Hunt, Forrest Gregg, Raymond Berry, Doak Walker and Eric Dickerson were honored.

Hunt (No. 80) played wide receiver at SMU from 1952-55 and was the owner of the Kansas City Chiefs. Gregg (No. 73) was a two-way standout on the Hilltop from 1952-55 and went onto a 14-year NFL career in which he won two Super Bowl rings. Berry (No. 87) was a Mustang wide receiver in 1953 and 1954 who became one of the greatest pass catchers in NFL history. Walker (No. 37), the greatest player in SMU history, became the first junior to ever win the Heisman Trophy in 1948. Dickerson (No. 19) finished third in the 1982 Heisman Trophy balloting and is the program's all-time leading rusher with 4,450 yards.

SMU honored five of its all-time greats by retiring their jerseys in 2000

THE MUSTANG LEGEND

Legend has it that when Ford Motor Company was preparing to introduce the sports car that would gain fame as the Mustang, it was considering other names such as Cougar, Bronco, Cheetah and Colt.

But during the 1963 football season, SMU took an undersized but quick team to Ann Arbor to play a massive Michigan Wolverine squad. Michigan gained the early advantage, but had to fight off the feisty Ponies for a 27-16 win.

After the game, Ford's Lee Iacocca entered the SMU locker room and addressed the disappointed Mustangs.

"Today," Iacocca said, "After watching the SMU Mustangs play with such flair, we reached a decision. We will call our new car the Mustang. Because it will be light, like your team. It will be quick, like your team. And it will be sporty, like your team."

Ford's new car got its name, and the rest, as they say, is history.

Legend has it that Ford's signature car, the Mustang, got its nickname via the SMU football team following this 1963 game at Michigan

MAKING THEIR PRESENCE FELT (IN THE PRESS BOX)

As All-Conference players, Craig Swann and John Hampton often made huge contributions on the playing field. Now they contribute in a different way - over the airwaves.

Following an outstanding career and an SWC-best 167 tackles in 1995, Swann is now in his eighth season with the SMU program as the color analyst for the Mustang Radio Network. Hampton, who finished his career as the leading pass-catching tight end in SMU history, is in his second season as a sideline reporter.

Working along side their partner, play-by-play man Rich Phillips, Swann and Hampton paint a vivid picture for Mustang fans and have been honored by a local radio station for their work.

Fans can catch SMU games this fall on 1310 AM The Ticket, the flagship of the Mustang Radio Network.

While Hampton hauled in 114 passes for 1,485 yards in his career as a tight end.

THE DOAK WALKER AWARD

The prestigious Doak Walker Award was created in 1989 to recognize the nation's premier running back for his accomplishments on the field, achievement in the classroom and citizenship in the community. It is the only major collegiate football award that requires candidates to be in good academic standing and on schedule to graduate within one year of other students of the same classification.

To be nominated, a candidate must:

- Play predominantly at the running back position and made extraordinary contributions to his team.
- Be enrolled in a degree program, in good academic standing and on schedule to graduate.
- Hold a record of good citizenship within and beyond the athletic sphere.
- Demonstrate a record of leadership.
- Exhibit the characteristics of sportsmanship and fair play associated with Doak Walker.

THE 1915 MUSTANGS

On the morning of September 14, 1915, coach Ray Morrison held his first practice, thus marking the birth of the Mustang football program.

A former All-Southern quarterback at Vanderbilt, Morrison immediately installed the passing game at SMU. Morrison came to be known as "the father of the forward pass" because of his use of the passing game on first and second downs instead of as a last resort.

A local sportswriter nicknamed the team "the Parsons" because the squad was composed primarily of theological students. SMU was a member of the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association, which ruled that neither graduate nor transfer students were eligible to play. Therefore, the first SMU team consisted entirely of freshmen.

The Mustangs played their first game on Oct. 10, 1915, dropping a 43-0 decision to TCU in Fort Worth. SMU bounced back in its next game, its first at home, to defeat Hendrix College, 13-2. During the 1915 season, the Mustangs posted a record of 2-5 and scored just three touchdowns while giving up 131 points.

SMU's 1984 squad won a SWC co-championship with a 10-2 mark and bested Notre Dame, 27-20, in the Aloha Bowl

SMU-TCU AND THE IRON SKILLET

During the post-World War II college football boom, the SMU and TCU student bodies created a traveling trophy called the Iron Skillet that was presented to the winner of the annual football game between the arch-rivals. The tradition eventually died, and the skillet was lost.

In 1993, however, the tradition was revived as the president of the SMU student body painted the face of the TCU student body president red and blue following the Mustangs' 21-15 victory in Fort Worth. The engraved skillet is presented to the winning team after each game.

After a 21-10 win in 2005, SMU has held the Skillet for two years and will look to defend it on Sept. 22 in Fort Worth.

SMU-RICE AND THE MAYORS' CUP

The award came to being in 1998 when Dallas Mayor Ron Kirk and Houston Mayor Lee Brown were in office.

Rice won the inaugural Cup game in 1998, 23-17 in overtime, but SMU brought it home in 1999 with a 27-2 victory.

The Cup changed hands every season from 1998 to 2002.

Rice claimed the Cup in 2006, but SMU will look to regain it on Nov. 10 in Dallas.

RIVALRIES BORN & REBORN

SMU moved to Conference USA in 2005. With the move, SMU reunited with former Southwest Conference foe Houston while adding geographical rival Tulane.

The Mustangs kept alive their rivalries with Rice, Tulsa and UTEP, former WAC members who also made the jump to C-USA.

The 2007 slate also includes matchups with two old SWC rivals - Texas Tech & TCU.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming has been part of the SMU tradition since 1926, the first year the Mustangs played at Ownby Stadium. Since then, SMU has played its annual Homecoming game in three other venues, the Cotton Bowl (36 times), Texas Stadium (eight times) and Gerald J. Ford Stadium since 2000. The 2007 SMU Homecoming contest will be held on November 10 at 2 p.m. and will pit the Mustangs against Rice.

Several entertainment and athletic celebrities have served as SMU Homecoming Grand Marshall, including actress Morgan Fairchild in 1981, model Cheryl Tiegs in 1982, pro football and tennis entrepreneur Lamar Hunt in 1983, SMU legend Doak Walker, the 1948 Heisman Trophy winner, in 1990, Forrest Gregg, Pro Football Hall of Famer, in 1991, professional golf great Payne Stewart in 1998 and Pro Football Hall of Fame member Raymond Berry in 2000.

HISTORY

THE HISTORY OF SMU FOOTBALL

1910s

On the morning of September 14, 1915, coach Ray Morrison held his first practice, thus marking the birth of the Mustang football program. Morrison came to SMU in June of 1915 when he became the coach of the University's football, basketball, baseball and track teams, as well as an instructor of mathematics. A former All-Southern quarterback at Vanderbilt, Morrison immediately installed the passing game at SMU. A local sportswriter nicknamed the team "the Parsons" because the squad was composed primarily of theology students. SMU was a member of the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association, which ruled that neither graduate nor transfer students were eligible to play. Therefore, the first SMU team consisted entirely of freshmen. The Mustangs played their first game on Oct. 10, 1915, dropping a 43-0 decision to TCU in Fort Worth. SMU bounced back in its next game, its first at home, to defeat Hendrix College, 13-2. Morrison came to be known as "the father of the forward pass" because of his use of the passing game on first and second downs instead of as a last resort.

• During the 1915 season, the Mustangs posted a record of 2-5 and scored just three touchdowns while giving up 131 points. SMU recorded the first shutout in school history with a 7-0 victory over Dallas University that year.

• SMU finished the 1916 season 0-8-2 and suffered its worst loss ever, a 146-3 drubbing by Rice. The Mustangs were outscored, 455-27, by their opponents while managing ties against Austin College (0-0) and Southwestern (9-9). Ray Morrison left SMU following the 1916 season to work with the Army YMCA at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., as Director of Sports and Recreation. He returned to SMU in 1920 to organize a Department of Physical Education.

• J. Burton Rix became the second head football coach in 1917 and guided SMU to its first winning season (3-2-3).

• In 1918, SMU became a member of the Southwest Conference, joining Baylor, Rice, Texas, Texas A&M, Arkansas and Oklahoma A&M (which later became Oklahoma State).

Record for the Decade: 14-21-6

Ray Morrison was SMU's first football coach and also coached the basketball, baseball & track teams on the Hilltop

Ownby Stadium was built in 1926

1920s

The 1920s brought the first two Southwest Conference football championships and a new stadium to the Hilltop. After Rix led the Ponies to a combined 4-11-3 record in the decade's first two years, Ray Morrison returned as coach in 1922 and guided SMU to the first of 10 consecutive winning seasons. Sportswriters billed the Mustangs the "Aerial Circus," in reference to Morrison's passing offense. At a time when most teams threw the ball five or six times per game, SMU passed between 30 and 40 times per contest. The Mustangs recorded a perfect 9-0 mark and the school's first conference title one year later in 1923.

In 1926, Ownby Stadium was built, named after SMU alumnus and strong supporter of athletics Jordan C. Ownby. SMU defeated North Texas State Teachers College, 42-0, on September 24, 1926, in the first game at Ownby. Quarterback Gerald Mann, known as "The Little Red Arrow" because of his strong, accurate passing, was a member of the first Mustang team to play in Ownby Stadium and, as part of his scholarship chores, helped plant the grass on the stadium playing field. SMU steamrolled over its first three opponents that year, shutting out North Texas State, Trinity and Centenary by a combined score of 127-0. Missouri was the only roadblock for the Mustangs in their 8-0-1 season, managing a 7-7 tie.

• In 1922, end Gene Bedford and back Logan Stollenwerck were named first-team All-Southwest Conference, becoming the first Mustang players to achieve that honor. Bedford became the first player from SMU to play professionally when he played for the Rochester Jeffersons in 1925.

• The Mustangs made their first bowl appearance in 1924, playing against West Virginia Wesleyan in the Dixie Classic on New Year's Day. The game, played at Fair Park Stadium in Dallas, was the predecessor to the Cotton Bowl. WVW spoiled SMU's 18-game unbeaten streak with a 9-7 victory.

• In the spring of 1926, Morrison decided that it would be important to find a lefthanded quarterback for the upcoming Southwest Conference season. Gerald Mann, who was the Mustangs' righthanded quarterback, told Morrison that he would have his lefthanded quarterback before the season began. Not eager to lose his duty as signal-caller, Mann reported to fall practice ready to throw lefthanded.

• Guard Choc Sanders became SMU's first All-American in 1928. Sanders was also the Southwest Conference's first All-America selection. Tackle Marion Hammon became the Mustangs' second All-American one year later.

Record for the Decade: 56-22-16

1930s

The Mustang football program continued its rapid ascent to national prominence during the 1930s. SMU won its first national championship in 1935 after posting a 12-win season under the guidance of first-year head coach Matty Bell. Known as a player's coach, Bell brought discipline to his team, and he spent time listening and talking to his players. Fullback Harry Shuford and tackle Truman "Big Dog" Spain were two prominent players on the national championship team. A tri-captain, Shuford was the Mustangs' best running back during the 1935 season, but injury forced him to miss the season's most critical contest.

The Mustangs, ranked number one in the country, played second-ranked TCU and its star quarterback Sammy Baugh for the unofficial national championship and the right to play in the Rose Bowl against Stanford on Jan. 1, 1936. Bobby Wilson scored two touchdowns to give SMU a 14-0 lead before Baugh rallied the Horned Frogs to a 14-14 tie. Early in the fourth quarter, Bob Finley connected on a long pass to Wilson after the Mustangs faced a fourth down at the TCU 39. Wilson caught the ball at the five and rolled into the endzone as the Mustangs held on to win, 20-14, and earned a trip to the Rose Bowl. Despite entering the game as heavy favorites, the Ponies were upset by Stanford, 7-0, with Cardinal quarterback Bill Paulman scoring the game's only touchdown on a first quarter run. While the loss constituted the only blemish on a 12-1 season, SMU was able to pay off its 10-year debt on Ownby Stadium with the check the university received from competing in the Rose Bowl.

• Prior to becoming the head coach at SMU in 1935, Matty Bell served as the head coach at TCU (1923-1928) and Texas A&M (1929-1933). Bell arrived at SMU in 1934 and served one season as the line coach.

• Three SMU players earned All-America status in 1935: tackle Truman Spain, guard J.C. Wetsel and back Bobby Wilson. Wilson, who scored all three Mustang touchdowns in the dramatic 20-14 win over TCU, went on to play one year of pro football for the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1936.

• SMU won its third Southwest Conference championship in 1931 after finishing the season with a 9-1-1 mark. The Mustangs struggled the next two seasons, posting a 3-7-2 record in 1932 and a 4-7-1 record in 1933.

• Harry Shuford, a tri-captain and fullback on the 1935 team, was drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles in 1936 and, despite the team's efforts to sign him to a contract, opted to attend law school at SMU. Shuford overcame the prevailing thought that a football player could not succeed in law school and finished first in his class in 1939.

1940s

While the 1930s established SMU's position on the national football map, the 1940s ensured its permanent inclusion. A conference co-championship in 1940 served as a solid beginning to the new decade, but was followed by six consecutive losing seasons from 1941 through 1946. World War II resulted in the loss of Bell for three years (1942-45) when he left the Hilltop to join the Navy reserves. Bell returned to SMU in 1945 and took on an additional role as the university's athletic director. The 1947 season brought new hope and the emergence of a legend in Doak Walker. The only three-time All-America in SMU history, Walker led the Mustangs to consecutive Southwest Conference championships in 1947 and 1948. Over the course of his career at SMU, Walker rushed for 1,954 yards, passed for 1,638 yards, scored 288 points, punted for a 39.4 average and kicked field goals and extra points. He is also the Mustangs' all-time leader in punt return yards with 750. Walker's exploits earned him the Heisman Trophy in 1948 and led to his number 37 being the only jersey ever to be retired at SMU. Led by Walker, Kyle Rote, Dick McKissack and Paul Page, the Mustang backfield combined hard running with tricky reverse and gadget plays to wreak havoc on opposing defenses in the latter part of the decade.

• Walker was a high school teammate of Bobby Layne at Highland Park High School in Dallas. The two were matched against each other in Walker's first collegiate game in 1945 when Layne was the quarterback at Texas. Although UT won the game, 12-7, Walker scored the Mustangs' only touchdown and kicked the extra point. Walker and Layne were reunited as teammates when both played for the Detroit Lions in the early 1950s.

• After playing their home games since 1926 at Ownby Stadium, the Mustangs moved to the Cotton Bowl in 1948 and remained there for 31 years. For almost a half-century, the last game played at Ownby was Oct. 2, 1948, when SMU defeated Texas Tech, 41-6. Because of his immense popularity, the Cotton Bowl became known as "The House That Doak Built."

• Following the 1947 and 1948 seasons, SMU played in back-to-back Cotton Bowls. The Mustangs were matched against Penn State in the 1948 game, tying the Nittany Lions, 13-13. Walker threw a 53-yard touchdown pass and scored on a two-yard run, but Penn State's Elwood Petchel matched Walker by tossing scoring passes of 38 and six yards. The 1949 Cotton Bowl paired SMU with Oregon and its star quarterback, Norm Van Brocklin. The Mustangs won 21-13.

Kyle Rote (44) was named an All-American following the 1950 season

1950s

After playing alongside Doak Walker the previous two seasons, Kyle Rote was given his chance to be the featured back in 1950. Rote, who led the Southwest Conference with 777 yards rushing in 1949, was named an All-American following the 1950 season.

As the Walker-Rote era came to an end, so began a new era of Mustang gridiron greats including Fred Benners, Forrest Gregg, Raymond Berry and Don Meredith. One of the most prolific passers in Mustang history, Benners completed 109 passes in 108 minutes played in 1950. A two-time All-Southwest Conference selection, Forrest Gregg was a two-way player at both offensive and defensive tackle from 1952-55. At first, he was not offered a full scholarship by SMU upon graduation from Sulphur Springs High School, and was leaning toward attending Texas A&M. However, chief recruiter Herman "Sleepy" Morgan, recognizing Gregg's infinite potential, ultimately lured him to the Hilltop with an offer of a full scholarship. Despite the fact that Berry caught just 11 passes for 144 yards during his junior season and had never started a game in his career, his teammates elected him as a co-captain in 1954. With that vote of confidence, Berry went on to earn All-Southwest Conference and Academic All-America accolades. He was a 20th-round draft choice of the Baltimore Colts in 1955 and was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1973. Don Meredith was a two-time All American in 1958 and 1959 and his .610 career completion percentage is the greatest of any passer in Mustang history. One of his greatest attributes was his running ability, which increased the pressure on opposing defenses.

• After Bell decided to relinquish his duties as head football coach to devote himself full-time to his responsibilities as athletic director, three different head coaches guided the Mustangs in the 1950s: H.N. "Rusty" Russell (1950-52), Chalmer Woodard (1953-56) and Bill Meek (1957-61). Bell's 127 career wins and .653 winning percentage both rank second all-time among SMU's coaching records.

• While Meek's teams won just 17 of 50 games during his tenure, he was responsible for installing an early version of the run-and-shoot offense during Don Meredith's sophomore season. Meek employed a spread formation, using a receiver wide to each side and one in the slot on each side.

• In his first varsity season in 1957, Meredith set an SWC single-season record by connecting on 71 of 102 passes for a .696 completion percentage. During his Mustang career, Meredith also returned kickoffs, punted and place-kicked.

• Quarterback Fred Benners led the Mustangs to perhaps their greatest win of the decade when he completed 22 of 42 passes for 336 yards to beat Notre Dame, 27-20, in South Bend on October 13, 1951.

Record for the Decade: 47-48-5

1960s

The first two years of the decade found the Mustangs shackled with mounting losses and sagging attendance. In 1960, SMU finished 0-9-1 and average home attendance fell below 30,000 for the first time since 1946.

Following a 2-7-1 season in 1961, SMU introduced Hayden Fry as the Mustangs' eighth head coach. Fry lifted SMU back to national prominence in 1966, when SMU was ranked ninth in the nation and won its first conference championship in 18 years. Jerry LeVias became the first African-American player in the Southwest Conference to receive an athletic scholarship in 1965 after choosing SMU largely because of its accounting program. As a senior in 1968, LeVias caught 80 passes for a school-record 1131 yards when he was selected both an All-American and Academic All-American. Combined with quarterback Chuck Hixson, LeVias helped lead the Mustangs to a 28-27 win over Oklahoma in the 1968 Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl, giving SMU its first bowl victory since the 1949 Cotton Bowl. Hixson was just a sophomore in 1968, but he finished the season as the nation's leading passer by completing 265 of 468 attempts for 3,103 yards.

The 1963 season provided the SMU football program with perhaps its most memorable game when the Mustangs hosted fourth-ranked Navy and its heralded quarterback, Roger Staubach, on October 11, 1963, at the Cotton Bowl. On its way to a 4-7 season, SMU was given little chance to beat the Midshipmen. Little-known sophomore John Roderick rushed for 146 yards on 11 carries and scored on touchdown runs of 45 and two yards for the Mustangs. The SMU defense, led by Bob Oyler, Martin Cude, Bill Harlan, Harold Magers and Doug January, sent Staubach to the bench twice with a dislocated left shoulder. Trailing 28-26 with 2:52 remaining in the game, SMU had one last chance to pull of the upset. Quarterback Danny Thomas threw to Billy Gannon, who ran to the Navy 46. On the next play, Roderick took a pitchout 23 yards to the 23. After a pass interference penalty against Navy put the ball on the one-yard line, Gannon plowed over right tackle for the winning touchdown with 2:05 left. The SMU defense held off Staubach's valiant effort to rally his team for one last score, as the Mustangs pulled off the 32-28 upset.

• Jerry LeVias and John LaGrone were the only three-time All-SWC selections of the decade. LaGrone was also the first Mustang player to be selected as both an All-American and Academic All-American when he was honored following the 1966 season.

• Led by LeVias and Chuck Hixson, the 1968 Mustangs eclipsed the 300-point barrier for the first time in school history, scoring 311 points. In addition to his 1,131 receiving yards, LeVias set school records for receptions in a game (15 vs. Ohio State) and receiving yards in a game (213 vs. N.C. State).

Record for the Decade: 35-65-3

1970s

Over the course of the 1970s, the SMU football program was shaped by outstanding individual performances and the birth of "Mustang Mania" on the Hilltop.

Chuck Hixson ended his SMU career in 1970 as the Mustangs' career leader in total offense with 7,179 yards. Alvin Maxson helped fill the void left by Hixson's absence by becoming the first Mustang to rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons when he rushed for 1,012 in 1971 and 1,005 in 1972. In the process, he helped the Mustangs to back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1958-59.

Defensively, Robert Popelka, Louie Kelcher and Putt Choate starred for the Mustangs in the 1970s. All three were two-time All-Southwest Conference performers during their careers at SMU.

Ron Meyer was hired as SMU's 10th head coach in January of 1976 and was given the responsibility of establishing a championship reign on the Hilltop. His ability to recruit players such as Mike Ford and Emanuel Tolbert helped build the foundation of "Mustang Mania." A highly-touted quarterback recruit from Mesquite High School, Ford was the nation's second-ranked passer in 1978, when he threw for 3,007 yards. His main target was Tolbert, an All-American with blazing speed.

Home attendance jumped from 26,000 to 52,000 in 1978 and "Mustang Mania" ushered a new era in SMU football the following season, when the Mustangs began playing all of their home games at Texas Stadium.

Accompanying the move to a new stadium in 1979 was a freshman class which would lift SMU football to new heights. Freshmen Eric Dickerson and Craig James combined to rush for 1,239 yards in 1979, and the "Pony Express" was born.

• Tailback Arthur Whittington finished second in the nation in all-purpose running to Pittsburgh's Tony Dorsett in 1976 with 167.5 yards a game. Whittington finished his SMU career in 1977 as the Mustangs' all-time leader in kickoff return yards with 1,649.

• A four-year starter from 1973-76, Ricky Wesson became the first Mustang quarterback to accumulate more yards rushing than passing in a single season in 1974. Wesson rushed for 885 yards while passing for 688. He became the fourth player in SMU history to lead the Mustangs in rushing and passing in the same season.

• Putt Choate became the first Mustang defender to record more than 200 tackles in a season when he made 253 in 1978. Choate finished his career with 649 stops.

• Despite coming from different backgrounds, Eric Dickerson and Craig James shared similar success before arriving at SMU. Both led their high schools to undefeated 15-0 seasons and state championships as seniors. In three years at Sealy High School, Dickerson rushed for 5,875 yards and 84 touchdowns. James collected 2,411 yards and 35 TDs during his senior season at Stratford High School in Houston.

1980s

There was a great deal of optimism surrounding the SMU football program in 1980. Eric Dickerson and Craig James gave the Mustangs one of the nation's top backfield duos and Mike Ford returned to the team after a knee injury limited him to just two starts in 1979. Leading the defense were future All-Americans John Simmons and Harvey Armstrong. The Mustangs parlayed their talent into an 8-4 record and the school's first national ranking (20th) since 1968. A 10-1 record the following season vaulted the Ponies to their second National Championship and their first conference title in 16 years, as a new quarterback took over the reigns of the Pony Express. Lance McIlhenny was the perfect leader for SMU's option attack, using his running ability and leadership capabilities to guide the Mustangs to a 34-5-1 record after taking over as the starting quarterback in the seventh game of his freshman season in 1980. After Ron Meyer was named head coach of the New England Patriots prior to the 1982 season, Southern Mississippi coach Bobby Collins was named the Mustangs' new head coach. Dickerson, James and McIlhenny led SMU to an 11-0-1 record and its second-consecutive National Championship in 1982, highlighted by a victory over Pittsburgh and its star quarterback, Dan Marino, in the Cotton Bowl. With the loss of Dickerson and James to the National Football League in 1983, the Mustangs found a capable replacement in Reggie Dupard, a tailback from New Orleans whose blazing speed made him the first SMU running back to gain over 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons. Dupard was the nation's eighth-leading rusher in 1985 with 1,278 yards, and he became a first-round draft choice by the New England Patriots the following spring. After NCAA sanctions forced the cancellation of the 1987 season and University officials cancelled the 1988 campaign, SMU welcomed one of its former gridiron greats back to lead the resurrection of the Mustang football program. Forrest Gregg returned to accept what he called "the ultimate challenge" when he was named as the Ponies' head coach on January 14, 1988, after having coached the Green Bay Packers since 1984. He was given the responsibility of guiding a team which consisted of 74 freshmen, 16 of whom were starters. One of those freshmen was quarterback Mike Romo who, on February 10, 1988, became the Mustangs' first signee since 1985. Romo engineered one of the most exciting wins in Mustang history when he led SMU from a 17-point deficit in the final five minutes to defeat Connecticut, 31-30, in just the second game of the 1989 season. He completed a four-yard pass to Michael Bowen on the game's final play to give the Ponies their first win since 1986.

• One of the most memorable plays in SMU football history took place on November 13, 1982, when Bobby Leach took a cross-field lateral on a kickoff with 17 seconds left and raced untouched for a 91-yard touchdown to give the Mustangs a 34-27 win over Texas Tech. The play helped preserve the Ponies' undefeated season and forever branded Leach with the nickname of "Miracle Man."

• As a freshman in 1989, Mike Romo established four major university records which had stood for over 20 years. Romo set SMU records for yards passing in a game (450), passes completed in a game (40), passes completed in a season (282) and passes attempted in a season (503).

• Jason Wolf set an NCAA freshman record when he caught 61 passes in 1989. He also led the Ponies in scoring (50 points), and his 61 receptions are the fourth-highest total in SMU history.

• After playing their home games in Ownby Stadium from 1926-1948, the Mustangs returned their home games to the on-campus facility in 1989. SMU hosted Rice in the season opener on September 2, marking the return of Mustang football to Ownby exactly 40 years and 11 months after SMU's last game there.

Record for the Decade: 63-28-1

1990s

On April 11, 1990, Forrest Gregg assumed the role of athletic director, while announcing that he would relinquish his coaching duties following the 1990 season. Tom Rossley, who served as offensive coordinator at SMU from 1988-89, became the 13th head coach in Mustang history in December, 1991. The orchestrator of the Mustangs' Run-and-Shoot offense, Rossley returned to the Hilltop after one season as the quarterbacks coach of the Atlanta Falcons. The Mustangs went 5-6 in 1992 and Rossley was named Southwest Conference Co-Coach of the Year.

Another significant accomplishment occurred that season when Jason Wolf ended his career with 235 receptions, making him the Southwest Conference's career leader in that category.

Mick Rossley then emerged as the Mustangs' top receiving threat. A sure-handed receiver, Rossley broke Jerry LeVias' school record for receptions in a season when he hauled in 83 passes in 1994.

The winds of change swept across the Hilltop following the 1994 season as SMU prepared to begin its 77th and final season of play in the Southwest Conference after announcing that it would accept an invitation to join the Western Athletic Conference beginning in 1996. Coinciding with the final SWC season was the return of SMU football to the Cotton Bowl. After playing most of their home games the previous six seasons at Ownby Stadium, SMU made "The House That Doak Built" its home stadium in 1995. The Mustangs made their return a memorable one when, in the 1995 season opener against eventual SEC Western Division champion Arkansas, Wilbert Mitchell recovered a Razorback fumble on the SMU two-yard line in the game's final minute to preserve a 17-14 win.

The Mustangs showed they could compete in the Western Athletic Conference by fashioning a 4-4 record in their new league. SMU posted a 30-0 victory at UTEP in 1996, marking the Ponies' first shutout win since 1984. The Mustangs also won at Arkansas, exploded for 52 points against New Mexico and upended crosstown rival TCU 27-24 before a national television (ESPN) audience in the 1996 season finale at the Cotton Bowl.

On Dec. 20, 1996, Mike Cavan was named the 14th head coach of the Mustangs. Cavan led SMU to a 6-5 overall record in 1997, marking the first winning season for the Mustangs since 1986. After a 1-4 start, SMU won five consecutive games, marking its longest winning streak in 12 years. Cavan was named the WAC Coach of the Year by the Fort Worth Star-Telegram for his efforts in 1997.

Among SMU's victims in 1998 was Metroplex rival and bowl-bound TCU on "Doak Walker Day" at the Cotton Bowl. The game was in memory of the Mustangs' greatest player who passed away at the age of 71 on September 27, 1998. SMU dedicated its season to Walker, who won the 1948 Heisman Trophy.

• John Stewart became the first SMU All-American selection since Reggie Dupard in 1985 when the Mustang kicker was honored following the 1993 season. A former walk-on who had never attempted a field goal or extra point prior to his senior season in 1993, Stewart converted on all 23 of his extra point attempts, as well as 13 of his 17 field goal attempts, including a 55-yarder.

• Craig Swann was named the Sports Illustrated National Defensive Player of the Week after he recorded 20 tackles in SMU's 17-14 season-opening win over Arkansas in 1995.

• Quarterback Ramon Flanigan became SMU's all-time leader in total offense (7,437 yards) and touchdowns responsible for (57) with a solid senior season in 1997. He was granted a sixth year of eligibility prior to 1997 by the NCAA.

• Linebacker Chris Bordano was named the 1997 WAC Mountain Division Defensive Player of the Year after leading the team in tackles with 120. Bordano became just the 10th player in SMU history to be named All-Conference three times.

• SMU great Eric Dickerson was inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, in 1999, becoming the fifth Mustang to earn Pro Football Hall of Fame status.

• Defensive end Luke Johnson recorded 11.5 sacks in 1999 while helping lead SMU to a 4-6 record, and concluded his career as the program's all-time sack leader with 22.5 sacks from 1996-99.

• In 1999, the Ponies closed another chapter of Mustang football at the Cotton Bowl and prepared to move into their new on campus home, Gerald J. Ford Stadium, in 2000.

Record for the Decade: 31-76-3
Record for the Century: 416-403-56

2000s

Sept. 2, 2000, may stand out as the most significant day in the history of the storied SMU football program. That was the date that Mustang football returned to campus with the inaugural game in $60 million Gerald J. Ford Stadium. SMU christened the facility by whipping Big 12 foe Kansas, 31-17, before a sellout crowd of 32,267. It was the first capacity home crowd for Mustang football since 1990.

The biggest development of 2001 came on Dec. 5 when former Kansas State defensive coordinator Phil Bennett was named the 15th head coach in school history. Bennett's first season on the Hilltop saw one of the greatest statistical rushing seasons ever produced at SMU as junior back Keylon Kincade rushed 327 times for 1,279 yards with eight 100-yard rushing games. Kincade's attempts number was a school season record while his yardage total and number of 100-yard games ranked third on the SMU season list.

Justin Willis was named the Conference USA Freshman of the Year in 2006

The 2002 campaign was also the last for two of the best players in recent SMU history - tight end John Hampton and linebacker Vic Viloria. Hampton concluded his career as the program's all-time leader in receptions at his position with 114. Viloria was SMU's leading tackler during his final three seasons and finished his career ranked eighth on the school's all-time tackles list with 372. He earned All-WAC honors three times.

In 2003, tailback Keylon Kincade rolled on, gaining 1,280 yards. He became just the fourth player in SMU history to notch multiple 1,000-yard seasons. Kincade finished his career in sixth place in the SMU annals with 3,038 yards.

After a 3-8 2004 campaign, the 2005 season brought a new highlight to SMU football history as the Mustangs stampeded into Conference USA. SMU finished the 2005 season with a 5-6 mark, its highest win total in eight seasons. The year was full of highlights like SMU's first win over a ranked team since 1986, a 3-1 record against Bowl teams, and a three-game win streak to end the season - SMU's longest since 1999.

The 2006 season showcased a bright future for SMU football. The Mustangs upped their win total for the third straight season, posted their highest win total in a decade and reached bowl-eligibility all while featuring a slew of talented young players. SMU student-athletes filled a Conference USA-high six spots on the All-Freshman team and also placed the record-setting pair of quarterback Justin Willis and wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders on The Sporting News' Freshman All-America squad. SMU continued to win off the field as well, as the Mustangs received the American Football Coaches Association's 2006 Academic Achievement Award after the school recorded a 100 percent graduation rate.

MUSTANGS TOP HORNED FROGS EN ROUTE TO 1935 NATIONAL TITLE

Ft. Worth - The SMU Mustangs improved to 11-0 with a 20-14 win over second-ranked TCU before more than 40,000 fans on Saturday, Nov. 30, 1935. The win snapped TCU's 10-game win streak and ended the Frogs' bid for the Rose Bowl. SMU moved one step closer to the Pasedena-based contest, a Southwest Conference title and a National Championship.

SMU opened the scoring midway through the first quarter when Bob Finley plunged in from one yard out. Mustang kicker Maurice Orr added the extra point and SMU held the early 7-0 lead. SMU stretched the lead to 14-0 early in the second quarter when Bobby Wilson scampered in from 14 yards out for the score. Orr's PAT gave the Ponies the two-TD edge just over one quarter into the game.

After two TCU scores knotted the game at 14-14 with eight minutes to play, the stage was set for SMU's dramatic win. Wilson returned the kickoff to the SMU 40-yard line and after two carries the Mustangs had the ball at midfield. Following a three-yard carry by Shelly Burt, Finley heaved a 47-yard scoring pass to a leaping Wilson amid a group of Horned Frog defenders. Orr missed the point-after, but the game ended when TCU's drive stalled at the SMU 35 and the Ponies had held on for the win.

ABOUT THE DICKINSON & HOULGATE SYSTEMS

The Dickinson System (1926-40) is a mathematical point system devised by Frank Dickinson, a professor of economics at Illinois. The annual Dickinson ratings were emblematic of the national championship and the basis for awarding the Rissman National Trophy and the Knute K. Rockne Intercollegiate Memorial Trophy.

The Houlgate System (1927-58) is a mathematical rating system developed by Deke Houlgate of Los Angeles, Calif. His ratings were syndicated in newspapers and published in Illustrated Football and the Football Thesaurus.

BIG GAME BREAKDOWN

MUSTANGS RALLY WITH 20-POINT FOURTH QUARTER TO CLINCH SWC CROWN AT ARKANSAS

Fayetteville - SMU finished the regular season 10-1 and clinched the 1981 Southwest Conference championship with a thrilling come-from-behind victory over Arkansas in the final game of the season on Nov. 21.

With the Pony Express held in check for most of the game, the Mustangs managed only one touchdown - a Russ Washington 10-yd. interception return - to go along with two Eddie Garcia field goals through three quarters of play.

Trailing 18-12 entering the fourth quarter, SMU tied the game at 18 with 7:41 remaining on another Garcia field goal. On the ensuing Razorback possession, SMU's Eric Ferguson jumped in front of a Brad Taylor pass and returned it inside the Arkansas 20. The Ponies only needed two Craig James runs to score the go-ahead touchdown with 6:30 remaining.

Following the kickoff, the Mustang defense held again and forced an Arkansas punt with 3:49 remaining and SMU wanting a score to seal the victory. Eric Dickerson delivered with 27 seconds left, when he scampered 31 yards for the touchdown to give SMU the 32-18 win.

Dickerson and James each ran for over 100 yards in the contest and Dickerson set an SMU record with his 19th touchdown on the season.

BIG GAME BREAKDOWN

MCILHENNY MANEUVERS MUSTANGS TO 7-3 COTTON BOWL WIN OVER MARINO'S PANTHERS

Dallas - With the temperature in the upper 30's and a light rain falling at gametime, playing conditions were anything but ideal when undefeated SMU met Pittsburgh in the 1983 Cotton Bowl. Accustomed to playing in inclement weather, Pittsburgh appeared to have the advantage in the early going, driving to the SMU one-yard line on the game's opening series. Panther halfback Joe McCall fumbled away Pitt's best touchdown opportunity when Mustang safety Wes Hopkins fell on the loose ball at the two. SMU was not able to capitalize and after two quarters neither team had scored, marking the first scoreless first half in the Cotton Bowl in 22 years.

On their first possession of the second quarter, the Panthers scored the game's first points when Eric Schubert booted a 43-yard field goal. SMU responded with an 80-yard drive which resulted in Lance McIlhenny's nine-yard touchdown scamper around right end on the third play of the fourth quarter.

Following the ensuing kickoff, senior quarterback Dan Marino engineered a drive which put the Panthers in scoring position at the SMU seven. On third-and-goal, Marino threw a pass which was tipped by Hopkins and intercepted in the end zone by Blane Smith, thus ending Pittsburgh's chance of handing SMU its only loss of the season and giving SMU its third national title.

ABOUT THE HELMS ATHLETIC FOUNDATION

The Helms Athletic Foundation (1941-82) was established by the founding sponsor, Paul H. Helms, Los Angeles sportsman and philanthropist. After Helms' death in 1957, United Savings & Loan became its benefactor during 1970-72. A merger of United Savings and Citizen Savings was completed in 1973, and the Athletic Foundation became known as Citizens Savings Athletic Foundation. In 1982, First Interstate Bank assumed sponsorship for its final rankings. Thereafter, Schroeder, who died in 1988, then chose, with the assistance of a Hall Board, the annual national champion after the bowl games.

BOWL GAMES

1936 ROSE BOWL
STANFORD 7, SMU 0

Pasadena, Calif.
January 1, 1936

SMU entered the 1936 Rose Bowl as the nation's top-ranked team, sporting a perfect 12-0 record and a defense which had shut out eight of its 12 opponents during the regular season. Led by first-year head coach Matty Bell, the Mustangs were matched against a strong Stanford team which took a 7-1 record into the game.

Due to a traffic jam, the SMU team bus did not arrive at the Rose Bowl until 20 minutes prior to kickoff. Stanford quarterback Bill Paulman scored on a one-yard sneak in the first quarter to give the Indians the early lead. It proved to be the only score of the game as SMU lost its best scoring opportunity with a fumble on the Stanford five-yard line. The loss was SMU's only blemish in its first national championship season.

1948 COTTON BOWL
SMU 13, PENN STATE 13

Dallas, Texas
January 1, 1948

The 1948 Cotton Bowl featured a matchup between two unbeaten teams in SMU and Penn State. Led by All-American Doak Walker, the Mustangs jumped ahead early. Walker tossed a 53-yard scoring pass to Paul Page and later scored on a two-yard touchdown carry.

The Nittany Lions struck back when, just before halftime, Elwood Petchel connected on a 38-yard touchdown pass to Larry Cooney which cut the SMU lead to 13-7. Penn State scored the only points of the second half when Petchel threw his second scoring pass of the game on a six-yard toss to Wallace Triplett in the third quarter. The Nittany Lions, however, missed the extra point, and the game ended in a 13-13 tie.

1949 COTTON BOWL
SMU 21, OREGON 13

Dallas, Texas
January 1, 1949

Two of the nation's most powerful offensive teams met in the 1949 Cotton Bowl. Doak Walker and Kyle Rote led the Mustangs to their second consecutive Southwest Conference championship in 1948 while Oregon rode the right arm of quarterback Norm Van Brocklin to the Pacific Coast Conference co-championship.

The difference in the game was the use of the quick kick by SMU. Walker booted one 79 yards and Rote launched an 84-yard kick to pin the Ducks deep in their own territory. In addition to their quick kicks, the Mustangs' star running backs each scored touchdowns to give SMU a 14-0 lead. Answering the call for the Ducks, Van Brocklin threw a 24-yard touchdown pass to Dick Wilkins early in the fourth quarter. SMU put the game away just three minutes later when Chicken Roberts scored on an eight-yard run to push the lead to 21-6.

1963 SUN BOWL
OREGON 21, SMU 14

El Paso, Texas
December 31, 1963

In a rematch of the 1949 Cotton Bowl, SMU entered the game with a 4-6 record and had received a Sun Bowl berth largely on the basis of its 32-28 victory over fourth-ranked Navy in the third game of the season. SMU had a talented QB duo in Danny Thomas and Mac White, and both were counted upon to rally the Ponies in the fourth quarter after falling behind 21-0.

Thomas led the Mustangs on a drive which culminated in a two-yard touchdown pass to John Roderick. Later in the quarter, Roderick was on the receiving end of a seven-yard scoring pass from White to pull the Mustangs within nine points. After White ran for the two-point conversion, SMU trailed by a touchdown, 21-14, but could not pull any closer.

1966 COTTON BOWL
GEORGIA 24, SMU 9

Dallas, Texas
December 31, 1966

After winning its first Southwest Conference crown in 18 seasons, SMU earned a trip to the Cotton Bowl to face Georgia. Kent Lawrence set the tone early for the Bulldogs when he raced 74 yards for a touchdown on the game's second play. The sophomore running back finished the day with 149 yards rushing on 16 carries, as the Mustangs were unable to contain the Georgia ground attack. SMU cut the lead to 7-3 midway through the first quarter on Dennis Partee's 22-yard field goal.

Georgia responded by scoring 10 unanswered points before Mike Richardson scored the lone SMU touchdown on a one-yard dive with 1:14 left in the first half. Leading 17-9 at halftime, Georgia shut down the SMU offense and its outstanding sophomore receiver Jerry LeVias in the second half. The only score in the final two quarters came when Bulldog fullback Ronnie Jenkins, who rushed for 88 yards on 23 carries in the game, scored on a four-yard touchdown run with 14:33 left in the game.

1968 ASTRO-BLUEBONNET BOWL
SMU 28, OKLAHOMA 27

Houston, Texas
December 31, 1968

The 53,543 fans who gathered in the Astrodome on New Year's Eve night for the 1968 Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl comprised what at the time was the largest crowd ever to see a football game played indoors. They also witnessed one of the most exciting college bowl games ever as SMU and Oklahoma combined to score 35 points in the fourth quarter before the game was decided.

OU scored on its first possession of the game when Bob Warmack carried on a sweep to the right for an eight-yard touchdown. Warmack's touchdown stood as the game's only score until the third quarter when Mike Richardson scored for SMU on a one-yard dive. The Sooners retaliated by driving 80 yards and scoring on a 21-yard pass from Steve Owens to Johnny Barr.

The fireworks began in the fourth quarter when SMU's Chuck Hixson connected with Jerry LeVias for an 11-yard scoring pass to tie the game at 14-14. Richardson scored his second touchdown with 7:35 left in the contest to give the Mustangs a 21-14 lead. After OU answered with a touchdown to tie the game, SMU linebacker Bruce Portillo intercepted a Sooner pass on the OU 22. Hixson put SMU on top 28-21after a 19-yard pass to Ken Fleming with just three minutes remaining. After driving the length of the field, Oklahoma cut the Mustang lead to 28-27 when Barr caught a 30-yard touchdown pass from Mickey Ripley with 1:16 left. SMU held onto the lead when Ripley was stopped short of the goal line on the Sooners' two-point conversion attempt.

1980 HOLIDAY BOWL
BYU 46, SMU 45

San Diego, Calif.
December 19, 1980

The 1980 Holiday Bowl featured two teams with distinctly different offensive philosophies. SMU relied upon the running of Eric Dickerson and Craig James, while BYU boasted an explosive aerial attack led by Jim McMahon.

The Mustangs jumped out of the gate early, racing to a 19-0 lead in the first quarter after touchdown runs by Dickerson and James, a safety and a 42-yard field goal by Eddie Garcia. SMU had increased its lead to 29-7 in the second quarter before BYU's Vai Sikahema returned a punt 83 yards, pulling the Cougars within 16 at halftime. Entering the fourth quarter, SMU led 38-19, and with four minutes remaining the Mustangs held a 45-25 advantage.

With his team trailing by 20, McMahon led BYU to two quick touchdowns to cut the SMU lead to 45-39. With 18 seconds remaining, BYU's Bill Schoepflin blocked Eric Kaifes' punt to give BYU possession at the Mustang 41-yard line. After two desperation passes by McMahon fell incomplete, the Cougars had one final opportunity with just three seconds left. As time expired, McMahon found tight end Clay Brown in the end zone for a 41-yard touchdown pass, guiding BYU to one of the greatest comebacks in bowl history.

Dallas, Texas
January 1, 1983

With the temperature in the upper 30's and a light rain falling at gametime, playing conditions were anything but ideal when undefeated SMU met Pittsburgh in the 1983 Cotton Bowl. Accustomed to playing in inclement weather, Pittsburgh appeared to have the advantage in the early going, driving to the SMU one-yard line on the game's opening series. Panther halfback Joe McCall fumbled away Pitt's best touchdown opportunity when Mustang safety Wes Hopkins fell on the loose ball at the two. SMU was not able to capitalize and after two quarters neither team had scored, marking the first scoreless first half in the Cotton Bowl in 22 years.

On their first possession of the second quarter, the Panthers scored the game's first points when Eric Schubert booted a 43-yard field goal. SMU responded with an 80-yard drive which resulted in Lance McIlhenny's nine-yard touchdown scamper around right end on the third play of the fourth quarter. Following the ensuing kickoff, senior quarterback Dan Marino engineered a drive which put the Panthers in scoring position at the SMU seven. On third-and-goal, Marino threw a pass which was tipped by Hopkins and intercepted in the end zone by Blane Smith, thus ending Pittsburgh's chance of handing SMU its only loss of the season.

1983 SUN BOWL
ALABAMA 28, SMU 7

El Paso, Texas
December 24, 1983

SMU squared off against Alabama in the 50th Sun Bowl on a cold and windy afternoon in El Paso. The temperature at kickoff was 28 degrees, with winds gusting up to 35 miles per hour. Alabama jumped on the Mustangs in the first quarter, scoring on touchdown runs of one and 11 yards by Ricky Moore. The Crimson Tide defense forced three SMU turnovers in the first half, and Alabama was able to stretch its lead to 28-0 by halftime.

Jeff Atkins helped the Mustangs get on the scoreboard early in the third quarter when he broke loose for a 58-yard run, setting up Lance McIlhenny's 15-yard touchdown pass to Marquis Pleasant. Pleasant's touchdown represented the only points of the second half as Alabama held on for a 28-7 victory. After giving up 303 total yards in the first half, the SMU defense limited the Crimson Tide to just 96 yards of offense in the second half.

1984 ALOHA BOWL
SMU 27, NOTRE DAME 20

Honolulu, Hawaii
December 28, 1984

Between the years of 1949 and 1958, SMU and Notre Dame battled each other on the gridiron eight times. When the two schools met in the 1984 Aloha Bowl, it represented their first meeting in 26 years. SMU, playing in its fourth bowl game in five seasons, scored on its first two offensive possessions. A seven-yard touchdown carry by Jeff Atkins and Don King's 12-yard pass to Cobby Morrison gave the Mustangs a 14-0 lead. Notre Dame responded with 10 unanswered points before Brandy Brownlee connected on a 47-yard field goal to give SMU a 17-10 lead at halftime.

The Fighting Irish tied the game on Mark Brooks' 11-yard touchdown run in the third quarter, but SMU regained the lead on its next possession with Brownlee's second field goal of the game. The Mustangs were able to work on the clock for most of the second half due to the strong running of Atkins and Reggie Dupard, both of whom ran for over 100 yards in the contest. Dupard's two-yard scoring run gave SMU a 10-point lead with six minutes left in the game and the Mustangs held off a late Notre Dame rally to win, 27-20.

RETIRED JERSEYS

Eric Dickerson
19

As one of the greatest running backs in college football history, Eric Dickerson's SMU jersey No. 19 was retired at the SMU-TCU game on Nov. 24, 2000.

Dickerson earned All-America honors as a senior in 1982 when he rushed for 1,617 yards and 17 touchdowns on 232 carries (7.0 yards per carry), helping the Mustangs to an 11-0-1 record and a No. 2 finish in the final Associated Press national rankings. He finished third in the Heisman Trophy balloting that year behind Herschel Walker and John Elway as SMU captured the Southwest Conference championship and defeated Pitt, 7-3, in the Cotton Bowl.

A two-time Southwest Conference Player-of-the-Year, the Sealy, Texas, native owns 14 school rushing records, including career yards (4,450), season yards (1,617 in 1982), career touchdowns (47), season touchdowns (19 in 1981) and 100-yard games (28).

Doak Walker
37

Doak Walker epitomized leadership, sportsmanship, and academic and athletic achievement during his storied career at SMU in the late 1940s. Gracing the covers of numerous national magazines, "The Doaker" was a national phenomenon. The versable Walker, who also punted, returned punts and kickoffs, and kicked extra points, earned All-America honors in 1947, 1948 and 1949. After starting as a freshman in 1945, he missed the 1946 season due to his service in the Army; however, by his junior season, his exploits on the field had become legendary, and in 1948, Walker became the first junior to win the Heisman Trophy.

In addition to winning the Heisman, Walker was a consensus All-American three times and also won the Swede Nelson National Sportsmanship Award while at SMU.

Forrest Gregg
73

A Southern Methodist University leader as a student and an alum, Forrest Gregg's No. 73 was retired at halftime of the SMU-San Jose State on Oct. 7, 2000. Gregg was a two-way player on the Mustang football team from 1952-55.

Gregg was a dominant force on both sides of the line as a collegian and earned All-SWC honors as a junior and senior in 1954 and 1955. He also served as SMU co-captain in his final year.

After his career on the Hilltop concluded, Gregg moved on to a 14-year career in the National Football League. He played for the Green Bay Packers for 13 years and closed his NFL career in 1971 with the Dallas Cowboys. While with the Packers, Gregg won a pair of Super Bowl Rings in 1967 and 1968. He set a Green Bay record by playing in 187 consecutive games, was chosen All-Pro eight straight years from 1960-67, played in nine Pro Bowls and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1977.

When football returned to the Hilltop in 1989, it was natural that Gregg would play a part. He served as head coach of the 1989 & 1990 Mustangs then moved into administration at the school and was also SMU's athletic director (1990-94). He received the Distinguished Alumni Award in the fall of 2000. The award represents the highest honor the university and its Alumni Association can bestow upon an alumnus of the institution.

Lamar Hunt
80

A great friend of Southern Methodist University and one of its most distinguished alumni, Lamar Hunt's No. 80 football jersey was retired at halftime of the SMU-Tulane game on Sept. 23, 2000. Hunt was a member of the Mustang football team from 1952-55 and wore No. 80 as a wide receiver his senior season.

After graduating from SMU with a degree in geology, Hunt had a distinguished career as a sports entrepreneur. He remains perhaps best known for helping turn professional football into America's number one sporting pastime and was credited with accidentally naming the NFL's championship game the "Super Bowl." He was an original organizer of the American Football League (AFL), for which the Texas Sportswriters Association named him "Southwesterner of the Year."

In 1960, Hunt founded the Dallas Texans, who later became the Kansas City Chiefs, and was a principal negotiator in the AFL/NFL merger that paved the way for much of the game's modern growth.

For all his efforts, Hunt was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1972. As a tribute to his contributions to professional football, the AFC Championship Trophy carries his name, and in 1983, the NFL gave Hunt its Lifetime Achievement Award.

Raymond Berry
87

One of the greatest wide receivers in National Football League history, Raymond Berry's SMU jersey No. 87 was retired at the SMU-Nevada game on Oct. 28, 2000. Berry was a two-way player who earned two letters for the Mustangs in 1953 and 1954.

The Corpus Christi, Texas, native earned All-Southwest Conference honors and was an Academic All-American during his senior year. He was a 20th round NFL Draft choice of the Baltimore Colts in 1955 and became one of the greatest draft selections in league history.

Berry led the NFL in receptions in 1958, '59 and '60. He helped the Colts win the 1958 league championship by catching 12 passes for 178 yards and a TD in the title game.

When he retired from the game after the 1967 season, Berry was the NFL's all-time leader with 631 catches for 9,275 yards and 68 TDs. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1973.

SMU FOOTBALL GREATS

QUARTERBACKS

FRED BENNERS

Ranked among the country's top 10 passers in 1950 and 1951. Ranks eighth among SMU's career passing yardage leaders (3,373). Led the Southwest Conference in attempts, completions, completion percentage and passing yards in 1950. Completed 109 passes in only 108 minutes played in 1950. Played professionally in 1952 with the New York Giants.

RAMON FLANIGAN

SMU's all-time total offense leader with 7,437 yards. Ranks among the school's career leaders in passing yards (5,640-fourth), completions (438-fourth), pass attempts (829-fourth), TD passes (30-fifth) and rushing yards (1,797-15th). Accounted for more touchdowns (57) than any other SMU player. Ran for 27 touchdowns and threw for 30.

Lance McIlhenny posted a career mark of 34-5-1 at the SMU helm

GERALD MANN

First-team All-Southwest Conference selection in 1926 and 1927. Led SMU to a 15-2-1 record in his final two seasons. Nicknamed the "Little Red Arrow" because of his strong, accurate throwing arm. Member of the first Mustang team to play in Ownby Stadium in 1926. Inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1969. Eventually went into law and served as the Attorney General for the state of Texas.

LANCE MCILHENNY

SMU and the SWC's all-time winningest quarterback with a combined record of 34-5-1. Guided SMU to its first 11-win season and a National Championship. Three-time All-SWC selection from 1981-83. Led the SWC in passing efficiency with a 133.0 rating in 1982.

DON MEREDITH

Two-time All-America selection in 1958 and 1959. Set SWC record with .696 completion percentage in 1957. First-round draft choice of the Dallas Texans in 1960 (which later became the Kansas City Chiefs), but was awarded to the expansion Dallas Cowboys later that year. Starred for the Cowboys from 1960-68 and later became an announcer for ABC-TV's "Monday Night Football" telecasts.

MIKE ROMO

Ranks second among SMU career leaders in completions (601) and attempts (1,034) and third among the school's passing yardage leaders (6,041). His 2,927 passing yards in 1989 were the most in a single season by an SMU quarterback. Established four school records as a freshman — most yards passing in a game (450), most completions in a game (40), most completions in a season (282) and most pass attempts in a season (503).

WES HOPKINS

Former walk-on who was a two-time All-SWC selection (1981-82). Led the SWC with six interceptions in 1982. SMU's career leader in interception return yards (231). Tied the school single-game record with four thefts against Houston in 1981. Enjoyed an All-Pro NFL career with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1983-93.

ROD JONES

Made five career interceptions and 133 total tackles. One of the fastest players in school history, Jones was also a track standout for SMU in the 1980s. Member of the 1986 national champion track team at SMU. One of two players from SMU to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft in 1986 (Reggie Dupard was the other). Played professionally nine years with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1986-90) and Cincinnati Bengals (1991-93, 1995) in the NFL.

ROBERT POPELKA

All-America selection in 1972. Team leader in interceptions in 1970 and 1971, grabbing four each season. Owns the school record with a career 19.8-yard average on 11 interception returns. Two-time All-SWC selection at safety (1971-72).

JONAS RUTLEDGE

A first-team All-WAC selection in 2001. Started 45 of 47 games in his career and notched 177 stops and eight interceptions. Holds school records in kickoff returns (88) and career-, season- and single-game return yardage (2,154; 901; 190). Also holds the mark for season interception return yardage (147).

JOHN SIMMONS

Earned All-America and All-SWC honors in 1980. Ranks second in school history with 17 interceptions and three interceptions for touchdowns. Spent six seasons in the NFL as a cornerback with the Cincinnati Bengals (1981-83, 85-86), Green Bay Packers (1986) and Indianapolis Colts (1987).

KICKERS/PUNTERS

BRANDY BROWNLEE

Owns the school record for longest field goal, a 57-yarder. Ranks second in career field goal accuracy with a percentage of .714. The eighth-leading scorer in school history with 170 points.

EDDIE GARCIA

An All-SWC placekicker in 1980. Owns the all-time school record with 262 points kicking and 44 field goals. Set the school mark with 91 kicking points in 1981. Played two seasons with the Green Bay Packers in 1983 and 1984.

JERRY NORTON

First-team All-Southwest Conference selection in 1952. Led the Southwest Conference and ranked fourth in the country in punting average in 1951 and 1952. Career average of 41.8 ranks fifth among SMU career leaders in that category. Also led the Mustangs in rushing and passing as a junior in 1952. Played for five professional teams from 1954-64.

JOHN STEWART

A former walk-on who earned All-America and All-SWC honors in 1993. Kicked the second-longest field goal in school history (55 yards, 1993). Now has a successful dentistry practice in Dallas.

DANNY THOMAS

Led the Southwest Conference and ranked among the nation's top 10 punters for three consecutive seasons from 1962-64. Led the country with a 44.0 yard average in 1963. His 42.1 yard career punting average ranks fourth among SMU's all-time leaders. Also served as SMU's quarterback and led the team in passing in 1963 and 1964, when he had 17 touchdown passes and just four interceptions.

Danny Thomas led the SWC and ranked among the nation's top 10 punters for three consecutive seasons from 1962-64

SMU ATHLETICS

SMU ADMINISTRATION

R. GERALD TURNER

President

As the president of Southern Methodist University since 1995, R. Gerald Turner is leading an era of unprecedented progress at the University. The Campaign for SMU: A Time to Lead raised more than $542 million for academic programs, scholarships, professorships, and student life programs. A new strategic plan is guiding the University's advancement, and the Centennial Master Plan is the physical profile of the campus, including development of a new East Quad.

Beyond the campus, Gerald Turner serves on the boards of the United Way of Dallas, the Methodist Hospital Foundation, the Salvation Army of Dallas, and three publicly traded companies.

President Turner holds leadership positions in several higher education associations. He is co-chair of the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics and chair of the NCAA Subcommittee on Presidential Leadership of Internal and External Constituencies. He is the winner of the Henry Cohn Humanitarian Award of the Anti-Defamation League of Dallas and the Chief Executive Leadership Award from District Four of the Council for Advancement and Support of Education.

Before joining SMU, President Turner was the chancellor of the University of Mississippi. A native of New Boston, Texas, he earned a B.S. degree in psychology from Abilene Christian University and M.A. and Ph.D. degrees in psychology from the University of Texas at Austin. He and his wife, Gail, a native of Graham, Texas, have two daughters, both of whom live with their husbands in Dallas. Angela is a professional opera singer and the mother of Luke; Jessica, an SMU alumna, is a professional actress.

PAUL ROGERS

Faculty Athletic Representative

Paul Rogers, professor of law and the former dean of the SMU School of Law, is the university's faculty athletic representative and represents the university with Conference USA and the NCAA. Rogers formerly served as president of the Southwest Conference and was more recently on the NCAA Division I Academics/Eligibility/Compliance Cabinet. He was recently appointed to the National Advisory Committee for the National Football Foundation's Honor Society and also is a member of the Executive Committee of the Division I-A Faculty Athletics Representative Association.

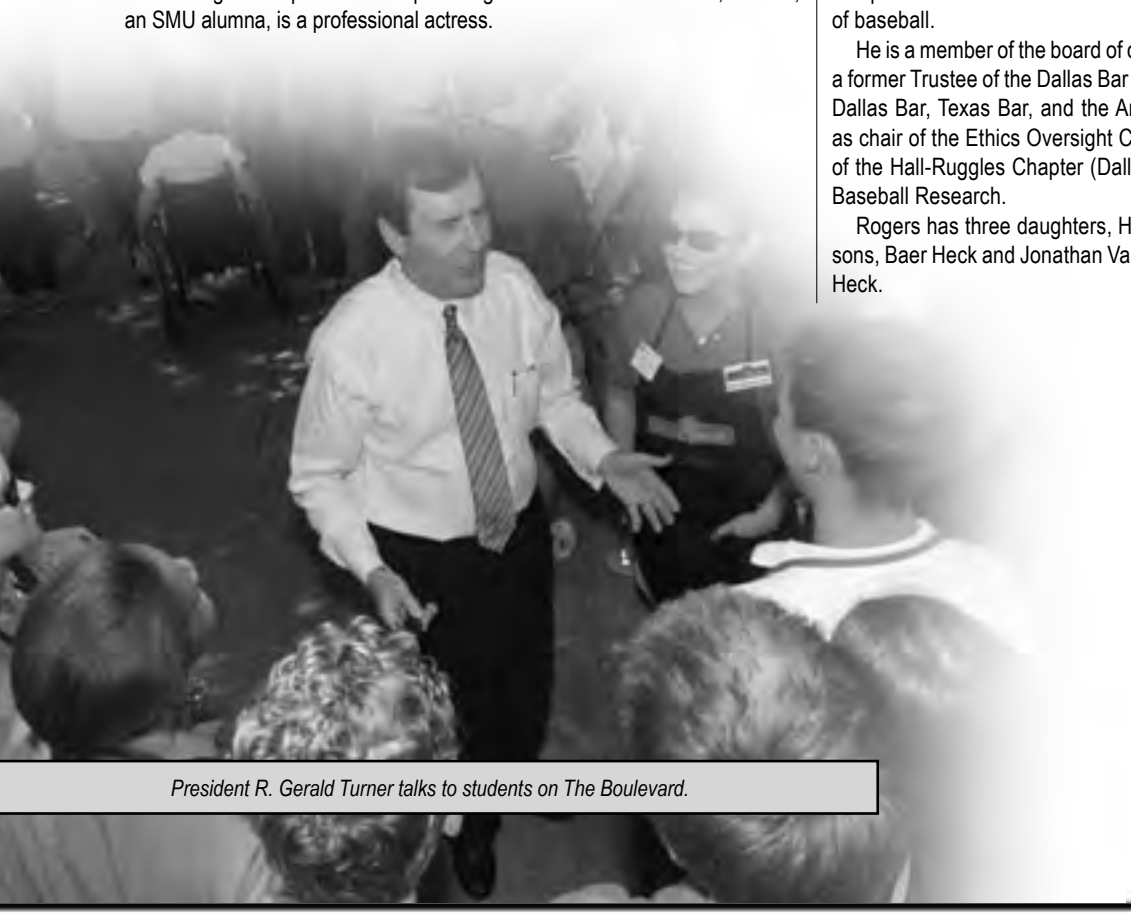

In 1988, Dean Rogers was the principal drafter of the University's Manual of Governance for SMU Athletics and became the first chair of the SMU Athletic Council, which establishes academic and administrative policies for student-athletes at SMU. He continues to serve as a member of the council.

Prior to joining the SMU law faculty in 1980, he served on the law faculty at Loyola University of Chicago. He previously practiced law in Pennsylvania. Dean Rogers has earned two degrees (B.A., J.D.) from the University of Texas and an LL.M. from Columbia University.

Rogers served as dean of the School of Law from 1988-97. Earlier he served as associate dean for academic affairs at the Law School from 1982-86. He has co-authored a leading casebook on antitrust law, now in its fourth edition, and has written numerous articles on antitrust, regulated industries, contracts, commercial law and legal history. An avid baseball historian, he has published three books and a number of articles dealing with the history of baseball.

He is a member of the board of directors of Dispute Mediation Services and a former Trustee of the Dallas Bar Foundation. Dean Rogers is a fellow of the Dallas Bar, Texas Bar, and the American Bar Foundations. He also served as chair of the Ethics Oversight Committee for Dallas 2012 and is president of the Hall-Ruggles Chapter (Dallas-Fort Worth) of the Society of American Baseball Research.

Rogers has three daughters, Heather, Jillian, and Ruthie, and two grandsons, Baer Heck and Jonathan Van Auken, and a granddaughter, Bozlie Kate Heck.

President R. Gerald Turner talks to students on The Boulevard.

SMU ADMINISTRATION

STEVE ORSINI

Director of Athletics

Arriving on the Hilltop with over 25 years of experience in athletic administration, Steve Orsini began his tenure as the Director of Athletics at SMU on June 1, 2006. A little over a year into his tenure, Orsini has already created a tremendous sense of excitement for SMU fans.

Orsini made an immediate impact by hiring 2001 Associated Press National Coach of the Year Matt Doherty to lead the Mustang men's basketball program even before his first "official" day on the job. In his first year on the job, SMU was again the top-ranked Conference USA school in the U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup standings and has now been ranked as the top school in its conference for 10 straight years.

In the classroom, 10 of SMU's 15 athletic programs scored a perfect 100 percent in the NCAA Graduation Success Rates, and all 15 of SMU's programs rated by the NCAA were equal to or better than the national average. Among the 119 NCAA Division I-A football-playing institutions, SMU had the fifth-highest percentage of its sports with 100 percent scores, with a .667 figure (10 of 15). Football was further honored when SMU received the American Football Coaches Association's 2006 Academic Achievement Award after the school recorded a 100 percent graduation rate for its football players. In all, SMU boasts a remarkable 97 percent refined graduation rate with 188 student-athletes being named to the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll.

THE STEVE ORSINI FILE

Hometown: Hummelstown, Pa.

Education: The University of Notre Dame, 1978, Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration, Majoring in Accounting

Family: He and his wife, Amy, have one daughter, Angela.

STEVE ORSINI TIMELINE:

2006-Present:	Director of Athletics, SMU
2002-2006:	Director of Athletics, UCF
1999-2002:	Senior Associate A.D, Georgia Tech
1994-1999:	Associate A.D. and Treasurer, U.S. Naval Academy Athletics Association
1993-94:	Sales Controller, Fujitsu-ICL Systems
1984-93:	Director of Administration/Ticket Manager, Dallas Cowboys
1981-84:	Assistant Business Manager & Ticket Manager, Notre Dame
1978-81:	Senior Accountant, Deloitte, Haskins & Sells

SMU is also seeing a construction boom under Orsini. SMU has embarked on a $60 million plan to build new facilities and improve existing ones. The $13-million, 43,000 square-foot Crum Basketball Center, a basketball-only practice facility, is under construction adjacent to Moody Coliseum and is expected to be finished in time for practice this fall. SMU also has plans for new tennis, golf and natatorium facilities as well as continued renovations to Moody Coliseum, which began last season with the installation of a new $900,000-dollar Daktronics videoboard and redesigned court.

His desire to strengthen the business model for SMU Athletics led to the creation of several new roles within the department and his desire to reach out to SMU fans has taken him out into the community and even led to the creation of a blog, "Mustang Musings," featuring himself, administrators and Mustang coaches. SMU is the only Division I-A athletic department to have a frequently-updated, multi-administrator blog.

"Steve Orsini has the right combination of skills to continue moving SMU's athletics program forward," said SMU President R. Gerald Turner. "In addition to his experience building an athletics program similar in size to ours, he has a love of Dallas and business expertise that is helping us build resources and fan support. He shares our commitment to competing at highest level, running a program with integrity, and graduating student athletes who are prepared for life after college."

"I am here because SMU has a very successful program and is committed to providing all of the ingredients to build upon that success into greater success," said Orsini at his hiring. "We can be successful on a national level. My philosophy on how to have fun in athletics is spelled W-I-N. Our goal in every sport is to be in the top 25 in the nation - and for the ones that already are, I want them to be in the top 10. Collegiate athletics can excite the whole community, build school spirit and really create a sense of community."

Orsini came to SMU from the University of Central Florida, where he served as A.D. since June 2002. At UCF, he helped transform UCF into a top athletic program. He guided the Golden Knights to Conference USA membership and established the UCF Athletics Association, Inc., a private, non-profit, direct support organization of the University of Central Florida.

As part of a 70 percent increase in the department's budget during his tenure, Orsini increased funding for all sports while at UCF and the Golden Knights achieved immediate success under his leadership. During the 2004-05 academic year, six UCF teams advanced to NCAA play, including the men's basketball squad, which made its second consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament. Competing in their last season in the Atlantic Sun Conference, the Golden Knights swept the league's all-sports awards, given to the top program in the conference, for the third straight year. UCF followed that up by advancing to the inaugural Conference USA Football Championship Game and its first-ever bowl appearance in the fall of 2005 after winning the C-USA Eastern Division crown. In all, 25 teams competed in postseason play during his time at UCF, and the Golden Knights posted their highest-ever NACDA Cup finishes in 2003-04 and 2004-05.

Orsini's tenure at UCF was marked by growth. He oversaw major facility additions and renovations at UCF, including the completion of the Wayne Densch Sports Center and the Nicholson Fieldhouse, two of the top athletic facilities in the nation. He also initiated plans and secured financing for a new on-campus football stadium, a softball stadium complex, a rowing boathouse and a convocation center and arena as part of a $270 million mixed-use development - all of which are set to open by the fall of 2007.

Orsini expanded the Golden Knight fan base, with UCF setting all-time records in football season ticket sales and in revenues generated through ticket sales, corporate sponsorships and fundraising. He also saw UCF set attendance records for football and men's and women's basketball contests.

Prior to his appointment at UCF, Orsini spent three years as senior associate director of athletics for the Georgia Tech Athletic Association. In that capacity he was responsible for administration and business affairs for the Yellow Jackets. He played a pivotal role in the expansion of the football and baseball stadiums and also served as the tournament manager for the 2002 NCAA Final Four in the Georgia Dome.

Orsini, 51, joined the Georgia Tech staff after five years as the Associate Athletics Director and Treasurer at the U.S. Naval Academy Athletic Association. Previously, he spent 10 years in administration with the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League.

A native of Hummelstown, Pa., Orsini graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1978 with a degree in Business Administration, majoring in accounting. He was a three-time letter winner at fullback on the Fighting Irish football team and was one of four team captains on the 1977 national championship squad.

After graduation, he spent three years as Senior Assistant Accountant and became a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) in the New York office of the national accounting firm Deloitte, Haskins and Sells.

He began his career in athletics administration in 1981 as Assistant Business Manager and Ticket Manager at Notre Dame and remained in that capacity for three years until leaving to join the Dallas Cowboys as ticket manager in 1984. He became Director of Administration for the Cowboys in 1989, serving in that capacity until 1993 when he went back into private business as the Sales Controller for Fujitsu-ICL Systems, Inc. in Dallas. He resumed his career in athletics administration at the Naval Academy in 1994.

During his time at Navy, Orsini was responsible for all business and legal affairs and helped increase the Athletic Association's revenue by 70 percent. Responsible for the development of the department of External Affairs while at Navy, the program set all-time records at the school for season ticket sales, marketing and sponsorship revenues and fan attendance during his tenure.

Orsini is married to the former Amy Kertesz of South Bend, Ind., and the couple has a daughter, Angela.

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

All requests for working press, photo and broadcast credentials should be received by the SMU Athletic Media Relations office no later than Wednesday the week of the game. Requests should be made in writing on company letterhead by the sports editor or director and sent to:

Football Credentials
SMU Athletic Media Relations
Box 750315
Dallas, TX 75275-0315
-or-
FAX: 214-768-2044

After Monday preceding the game, credentials will not be mailed. The media will call window at Gerald J. Ford Stadium is located at the northwest corner of the stadium at the ticket office in the Paul B. Loyd, Jr. All-Sports Center. Credentials may also be picked up at the SMU Media Relations Office in the Loyd Center the day before the game.

MEDIA PARKING

A limited number of parking passes are available to media members. Media parking is located in various lots on campus. Admittance to the parking areas is by parking pass only. Admittance will not be granted with a press box or photo credential. A map on the back of the parking pass will direct you to the lot. Parking passes must be requested at least one week prior to the game for mailing purposes or they may be picked up at the Athletic Media Relations Office prior to game day.

MAIN PRESS BOX

The main press box at Gerald J. Ford Stadium is Level 5. Admittance is strictly limited to members of the working press. Two elevators to the press box are located on the west side of the stadium just inside of Gate 2. Priority seating will be determined according to the following criteria: local daily newspapers covering SMU on a regular basis; daily newspapers designated by the visiting SID; local radio and TV stations; national publications. All others are accomodated on a space-available basis.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

The SMU press box is a wireless Internet hot spot. To access the network, open your Internet browser and enter your e-mail address in the appropriate field on the SMU homepage. You do not need an SMU address for the network. Any e-mail address will activate the service. Team and individual statistics, play-by-play and quotes for both teams are provided.

POSTGAME PROCEDURES

The locker rooms are located in the Loyd All-Sports Center at the north end of Ford Stadium. After a brief cooling down period, SMU head coach Phil Bennett and requested Mustang players will be available in the interview room located in the SMU football meeting room. The SMU locker room is closed to the media.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Field photographers must wear their Field/Photo credentials at all times for access to the playing field. Photo credentials are limited to representatives from daily newspapers, wire services, television stations, magazines, and those persons on assignment for the SMU or opposing team's media relations offices. Anyone holding a field credential who is not actively involved in coverage of the game will be escorted from the field. NCAA rules limit photographers to restraining lines clearly marked on the sidelines. Photographers uncertain of sideline restrictions should seek clarification prior to the start of the game from a member of the SMU Athletic Media Relations staff. The photo deck at Gerald J. Ford Stadium is located on the roof of the press box. Take the press box elevator at Gate 2 to Level 5, proceed to the stairs at the south end of the press box and take them to the roof. There are covered areas from which to shoot in case of inclement weather. Photographers shooting from the photo deck must have Photo Deck credentials.

TELEPHONES

To order a phone line in the press box, contact:
Lynn Gross, SMU IT Services
214-768-2121
lgross@smu.edu

All media must provide their own instruments. Requests for individual phone lines must be made by noon Wednesday on the week of the game. SMU will provide five courtesy phone lines on Level 5 (press box) on a first-come, first-served basis for general use by the media.

RADIO

Booths are provided for home and visiting radio networks on Level 5. Visiting radio stations should coordinate all logistics through SMU Assistant Athletic Director Brad Sutton. SMU provides ISDN and POTS lines for visiting broadcasters on a reciprocal basis. There is also a dry-pair drop into the visiting locker room.

TELEVISION

SMU's live television appearances are governed by existing Conference USA and NCAA policies. All telecasts must be approved by SMU Director of Athletics Steve Orsini. Spotters and statisticians are available for a fee, but the SMU Athletic Media Relations office must be notified at least 10 days in advance.

PRACTICES

Members of the media are welcome to attend practice, but please notify the Athletic Media Relations office in advance. The Mustangs practice both on the Pettus Practice Fields just west of Gerald J. Ford Stadium and inside the stadium. Check the practice time and site on a daily basis.

Television photographers may shoot warm-ups and individual drills at the start of practice but will not be allowed to shoot group formations.

All interviews should be coordinated through the Athletic Media Relations office.

Contact Brad Sutton to arrange print and radio interviews with SMU Head Coach Phil Bennett. Coach Bennett will do television interviews between 3-3:30 p.m. on the field before practice.

Player interviews may be conducted after practice Tuesday through Thursday. No player will be pulled out of practice for an interview. The locker and training rooms are off limits at all times.

WEB SITE/E-MAIL

All SMU notes, releases, rosters and stats can be accessed at SMUMustangs.com. In addition, Brad Sutton e-mails press releases to members of the media. If you wish to be added to the list, please contact Brad at bsutton@smu.edu.

C-USA CONFERENCE CALLS

Conference USA conducts coaches' conference calls each week during the season. Contact the C-USA Media Relations staff at 214-774-1300 for dates and access numbers.

MEDIA LUNCHEONS

SMU hosts weekly media luncheons featuring Mustang head coach Phil Bennett and select SMU players each Tuesday throughout the season. The lunches, which begin at 12 p.m. Central time, are held in the Hall of Champions on the third floor of the Loyd All-Sports Center. Contact Brad Sutton at 214-768-2883 for more information.

collegepressbox.com

CollegePressBox.com is the official media website for Conference USA football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides and more for the conference and each of its 12 member schools throughout the season. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

SMU's games will be broadcast live on the Mustang ISP Sports Network and its flagship station, KTCK 1310 AM The Ticket. In addition to broadcasting SMU games in 2007, The Ticket is also the radio home of the Dallas Cowboys.

SMU's broadcasts will be accessible on the Internet at the Mustangs' official athletics website, SMUMustangs.com.

Rich Phillips returns for his seventh season as "Voice of the Mustangs" providing play-by-play coverage. In addition to his work with SMU football, Phillips also serves as play-by-play commentator for SMU men's basketball.

Former SMU defensive standout Craig Swann returns to the airwaves in 2007 in his eighth year as analyst on the Mustang Football Sports Network. Swann was an All-Southwest Conference linebacker for the Mustangs from 1992-96.

Former Mustang John Hampton enters his second year as sideline reporter for Mustang football. Hampton is the all-time leading receiver among tight ends in SMU history.
